2 Superforts Hit At 26,000 Feet; 7 Dead, 11 Missing

Four of 22 Men Are Alive; Three Bodies Are Taken From Wreckage of One, Four From Another; Survivors Give First Word of Tragedy

Stockton, Calif., Nov. 17 (AP)—Two airforce superforts collided 26,000 feet above Stockton at midnight. One fell in flames. The tail of the other fell off and it crashed in the mud.

Four of the 22 men aboard were saved. Seven were found dead in the wreckage. Eleven are missing.

Detailed checking eliminated one survivor reports by Lodi, Calif. Police. The four survivors—all at the navy annex at the Stockton Supply Depot after treatment for minor injuries—are:

Lt. Warren F. Sharrow, whose home, ironically, is only 26 miles east of Stockton in the Sierra foothills.

Pvt. Keith R. Burns, 19, Boise, Idaho, engineer on plane. His wife and daughter are in Spokane.

Sgt. Robert S. Kluge, 26, Spokane.

The sheriff's office field party radioed three bodies had been taken from the plane that burned on a McDonald Island levee on the delta of the Sacramento river.

State Highway Patrolman Bill Alcott said four bodies were taken from the plane that crashed six feet deep into the mud on the ridge tract two miles north and across the San Joaquin.

The wings of this plane were intact, but the tail assembly had collapsed.

A radio from the field party at this plane ordered all spectators cleared from the area because of high octane gasoline fumes.

Hamilton Field, 25 miles north of San Francisco, said the plane that burned was from the 32nd Squadron. The other was from the 325th. Both were part of the 32nd bombardment group at Spokane, Wash., air force base.

First definite word of the crash, in a fog, came from one of the survivors, Lt. Sharrow. He staggered into Edward Kenyon's King Island fishing resort bleeding from a head injury.

"The other plane ran smack into us," he gasped.

Air Search Takes On Big Personnel

Wide Area Is Patrolled by Rescue Craft Seeking Lost Bomber

Hamilton, Bermuda, Nov. 17 (AP)—The biggest peacetime air rescue search in history was underway today for lost B-29 bomber which ran out of fuel and crashed-landed in the sea somewhere near Bermuda yesterday.

Nearly 100 air force, navy and coast guard planes from bases all along the Atlantic seaboard crisscrossed above Bermuda's surrounding waters hoping for a sight of the stricken bomber or bobbing liferafts.

First search patrols yesterday afternoon were fruitless.

The last word from the superfortress, whose navigation instruments failed on a flight to England, was a radio message: "Going to ditch in five minutes."

After that message, yesterday morning a U. S. Coast Guard vessel heard weak S.O.S. signals, sparking hopes that the crewmen had taken to rubber life rafts equipped with automatic wireless distress signals.

The plane, part of a B-29 group enroute to England from March Air Base, California, lost its way when its radio navigation equipment failed and it encountered bad weather. U. S. officials at Kindley Air Base here thought it probably went down 150 miles southwest or northeast of Bermuda.

The U. S. Air Force, Navy and Coast Guard, and the Royal Navy all joined in the search. Planes came from nine American bases. A B-29 group returning from England, and another enroute there from California, also were drafted into the search.

The missing bomber was from the Second Squadron of the 22nd Bombardment Group.

The bomber was due in Bermuda at 8:10 a. m. yesterday (7:10 a. m. E.S.T.). At 7:16 a. m. the pilot radioed that he could not fly his position because his radio navigation equipment had failed and bad weather prevented his taking astronomical sights.

At 8:40 a. m. the B-29 pilot radioed he had enough gas left for two hours flying at maximum speed. At 11:45 a. m. he sent his last message heard by Kindley base, that he was preparing to ditch the plane in five minutes.

The plane, carrying five officers and 15 enlisted men, was commanded by Lieut. Col. John Granberry, Jr., of March Air Base.

U.N. Puzzles Over Latest Red Speech

Head Scratching Follows Vishinsky Address; Wonder Whether He Would Ease Off All Mixed Up

Charges, Soft Passages Intermingle to Bring Confusion

Lake Success, Nov. 17 (AP)—United Nations delegates were trying to figure out today whether Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Vishinsky has offered to ease east-west tensions.

The evidence before them was not too clear. Vishinsky made a speech yesterday before the Assembly's 98-nation political committee that could be viewed in two lights.

He made his usual attack on the North Atlantic Pact and the western proposal for atomic control. He shouted once again the Soviet charge that "reactionary circles" in the United States and Britain are fomenting a new war—a charge which western spokesmen describe as a deliberate falsehood.

Between his denunciations of the west, the Soviet foreign minister slipped in what appeared to be a few softer passages.

"It is possible to find a common ground for cooperation," he said, despite the fact that the opposing sides represent the rival worlds of capitalism and Marxism.

Vishinsky did not explain how this goal could be reached.

He ridiculed any idea that the Soviet Union would want to bomb the British Isles and said "there can be no thought of an attack on the United States. Then he returned to his verbal attacks on the west.

The United States, Vishinsky declared, is "in the throes of one" (Continued on Page 10, Col. 7)

Cistern Uncovered In Uptown Area Recalls Fire Work

Wednesday afternoon while grading operations were being carried out on the former Forsyth property at the corner of Pearl and Fair streets, a large cistern was uncovered.

The cistern was fully 14 feet deep and a dozen feet across. It had apparently been used as a water supply by former residents who had lived in the area.

The system of fire cisterns used prior to the building of a municipal water system. These large cisterns are frequently uncovered during street construction.

Prior to building of the municipal water system these large cisterns were kept filled with water in case of fire and during a drought when the supply ran low, or when a big fire depleted the water in an area it was the custom to call out the volunteer companies and pump water from a creek or stream from cistern to cistern until the depleted cistern was filled.

This pumping operation created great competition in the old days of hand pumping. Companies near the water source would seek to "drown out" the company above by pouring more water into their cistern than could be passed on to the next one. Rivalry rose to a high pitch and the company which was "drowned out" was expected to pay a penalty to the winning company.

Assessments in the town of Marlborough in the amount of $16,200 which had been omitted from the 1948 tax were moved on the town roll at the 1948 rate. Over under the rule.

Committee Asks $5,000

The Ulster County Publicity Committee made its annual report and financial statement. Last year's $3,500 was appropriated by the board. The report stated this sum had been practically expended and there was an "apparent" balance of $730 when all bills are met.

This year $5,000 more funds are being requested. They were printed and they were distributed to 46 states, Canada, West Indies and South America. The local publicity department had the cooperation of the New York State Department of Commerce and there was considerable publicity for this area contained in the state publicity folders.

Sixteen communities cooperated with the county publicity committee in printing local folders for their own areas. There were 132,000 local organization folders printed in 1949 publicizing townships of local areas and advertising in metropolitan newspapers with a total circulation of 15,000,000 was placed by the county publicity department. As a result of the endeavor to sell the county area to vacationists, there were 2499 direct inquiries made to the county.

Police Guard Is Posted At Maritime Headquarters

New York, Nov. 17 (AP)—A strengthened police guard was posted today at C.I.O. National Maritime Union headquarters after an outbreak of near-rioting between left and right-wing factions.

Sixty-five policemen patrolled the scene to prevent possible new disorders or violence.

Two union officials were injured and two persons were arrested yesterday during a 10-hour siege of the union headquarters building by hundreds of militantly shouting seamen.

Long-smouldering tension between left and right elements in the union was cited as the underlying cause of the outburst.

The trouble started yesterday after right-wing officials, now in power, suspended the union's New York port agent, David Drummond, and 13 union patrolmen, replacing them with rightists.

Some 300 leftist supporters, protesting the action, stormed the building on West 17th street in Lower Manhattan, crowded into the lower floors and jammed the doorways.

Scuffling and occasional fist fights broke out. Bystanders were shoved about.

Rightist officials barricaded themselves in offices on the sixth floor throughout the day.

About nighttime, police aided them in getting out, but one of them, N.Y.C. President Adrian Duffy, was struck and cut over the eye as he made his exit.

"We'll get you tomorrow, Duffy," someone in the crowd shouted.

A union port patrolman, Joseph Moutal, was struck and kicked about the head by the crowd, and treated later at a hospital for bruises.

Seamen Jack Smith, 29, and Leo Silverman, 28, were arrested and charged with assault.

During the siege, union business was at a standstill. Dispatching of seamen from the union's hiring hall was paralyzed but no ship sailing was reported held up for lack of seamen.

Delays were threatened today if the trouble resumed.

H. B. Warner, another union vice president, predicted the outbreak will have "tremendous reactions" today among seamen on ships in the harbor.

Fire Destroys Mail At Po'keepsie Station

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Nov. 17 (AP)—Fire destroyed most of the parcel post and circular mail in a car on a Buffalo-to-New York train on the New York Central Railroad here today.

Poughkeepsie firemen worked two hours to extinguish the flames.

James McGinn, postal inspector, said postal clerks in the car discovered one parcel post mail pouch smoking as the train—the second section of No. 52—entered the Poughkeepsie station at 5:07 a. m. (E.S.T.).

He said efforts of the clerks to stamp out the fire were fruitless.

McGinn said the car carried only parcel post and printed mail. He said the loss could not be determined pending a further inspection.

The car was taken out of the train, which proceeded on to New York.

Snow Removal Is Topic Taken Up By County Board

Supervisors Will Vote on Resolution at Next Meeting; Dr. Seecley Is Re-Named

With a chill in the air and reports of heavy snow in Buffalo the Board of Supervisors turned their attention to the matter of snow removal at their meeting Wednesday evening, moving an appropriation of $100,000 for removal of snow from state and county roads during the coming winter.

Of that sum $70,000 will be transferred from the county road balance on hand and $30,000 will be assessed and levied against the county by taxation. The resolution offered went over until the next meeting for adoption.

It was also moved that there be assessed and levied on the county the sum of $30,000 for county road fund to match state money which will be received. Over under the rule.

A resolution to raise $25,000 for the county for the county highway machinery fund was offered and went over under the rule.

Dr. Seecley Reappointed

The Rev. Frank B. Seecley, D.D., was reappointed to the Ulster County Board of Health for a six-year term. His term expires November 20. Dr. Seecley is president of the board.

A resolution was offered and adopted fixing the mileage to be paid county officials for authorized travel at a uniform scale of 8 cents per mile.

A resolution was also offered and carried that county officials and foremen who may be designated to attend conferences or conventions designed for instruction or benefit to their work on their job be paid expenses for travel, lodging and meals.

These expenses may be authorized by the head of the department involved. This blanket resolution was adopted to legalize and place in the hands of department heads the legal authority to send municipal employees to conferences and permit audit of expense accounts, without a separate resolution for each such instance.

The committee on sheriff's bills presented bills amounting to $1,502.21 which were audited and allowed, and a resolution to assess and levy that sum on the county went over under the rule.

Assessments in the town of Marlborough in the amount of $16,200 which had been omitted from the 1948 tax were moved on the town roll at the 1948 rate. Over under the rule.

2 Military Airfields May Close

Washington, Nov. 17 (AP)—Orders banning combat-type planes at Washington National Airport—scene of a disastrous air collision this month—may be followed by steps toward closing of two famous military airfields located nearby.

This move to virtually clear the immediate Washington area of military air traffic was reported under discussion by officials of the armed forces and civil aviation agencies.

A series of reports on near-crashes between military and commercial aircraft in the Washington area has built up strong pressure for such action.

The first step in that direction was taken yesterday, when the Civil Aeronautics Administration ordered all combat-type aircraft—whether military or civilian owned—to stay away from the crowded commercial field. National is the only civil field in the area available to large planes.

This move may be followed by another step, suggested by several members of Congress, under which Anacostia naval air station and Bolling air force base in southeast Washington would be converted to building sites and parking lots.

Once among the most famous military air fields in the nation, Anacostia and Bolling Field lie end-to-end along the eastern shore of the Potomac river directly across from National Airport.

The C.A.A. crackdown on the operation of combat-type aircraft planes at National will be felt most by corporations which use converted bombers as speedy executive transport. The military also uses converted bombers to carry high ranking officers.

Concern about crowded airfields over the capital reached a peak after the collision between a civilian-owned P-51 fighter and an Eastern Airlines DC-4 in which 53 people died, November 3. Public hearings by a board of inquiry ended Monday.

Since then, Eastern Airlines has filed three complaints of close flying by military planes. Military pilots in turn have filed two complaints against Eastern, one involving a low turn over Bolling and a concerning flight over a restricted area while bombing practice was in progress.

An air force converted bomber also reported a near miss with a special fast-finding board convened by Washington.

The ban on military planes at National Airport, announced by C.A.A. Chief D. W. Rentzel, does not apply to planes operated by (Continued on Page 10, Col. 7)

President Might Delay Action on Strike 24 Hours

Washington, Nov. 17 (AP)—The White House indicated today that President Truman might wait a day or so longer before trying to head off a new coal strike.

Up until this morning, all signs had pointed to a presidential move today to keep the strike from starting again in two weeks.

Then, Presidential Press Secretary Charles C. Ross told reporters that he did not expect any development during the day. He said he had "no forecast" on what might happen in the next few days.

There was still a possibility that Mr. Truman would give some hint of his intentions at a late afternoon news conference (4 p. m. E.S.T.).

The President reportedly is considering two possible peace plans.

(1) To ask Union Leader John L. Lewis and the soft coal operators to submit their dispute to a special fact-finding board empowered to make recommendations. If accepted, this plan would have the effect of delaying a strike while the board studies the dispute—possibly for 60 days.

(2) To invoke the Taft-Hartley law. This provides for a fact-finding board study and for a court injunction against a strike.

Officials have indicated that Mr. Truman may propose the special fact-finding board first. If this is rejected, he then would invoke the Taft-Hartley emergency provisions next Monday.

Bids Are Opened To Build Office At Po'keepsie Span

Miller and Gaynor Submit Low Figure, $42,585; Halverson Is Architect

Bids on construction of an office building for employees of the Mid-Hudson Bridge at Poughkeepsie were opened at the office of the New York State Bridge Authority here yesterday.

The bids were for general construction, electric wiring, plumbing and heating and the low figure on the general contract was submitted by Miller & Gaynor of Poughkeepsie at $42,585.

All other bidders on the main contract were Poughkeepsie firms. Their bids were: L. H. Svenson Co., Inc., $42,585; W. W. Kingston Co., $45,900; G. D. Campbell Co., $42,640; and Velletti Construction Co., $47,088.

Donald V. Spoor of Poughkeepsie bid $2,337 on the electrical work; Hewitt & Wyden, of Newburgh, $2,663 and Frank H. McEnaney, Poughkeepsie, $2,390.

The two Poughkeepsie bidders on plumbing were C. B. Strain & Son, Inc., $4,987 and Shaker, Travis & Quinn, $3,600.

Bids on heating by the same two were: C. B. Strain & Son, Inc., $3,834 and Shaker, Travis & Quinn, $3,600.

Harry Halverson, of this city, is the architect for the building which will have a basement and a single story and will be erected along the eastern approach between Water and Front streets 300 feet east of the present toll house.

The building will facilitate the work of 11 toll collectors and five other employees of the bridge. Toll booths will be installed near the building later.

President Could Halt Strike Through Worst of Winter

Washington, Nov. 17 (AP)—President Truman may move today to prevent a coal strike Dec. 1, 11e has no legal power to forbid a strike altogether. At best, he can only delay it.

But, using what power he has, he might be able to delay the strike 80 days or even 140 days. That would carry the country through the four worst winter months with a supply of coal.

On Nov. 9, when John L. Lewis called his miners back to the pits after a 52-day lay-off, he said it would be until Dec. 1. After that date he may pull them out again unless:

1. He's reached a settlement with the mine owners. None is in sight. The two sides have been haggling on and off since last

Iranian Shah Asks American Aid as Essential to Nation

Declares at State Dinner That Iran Needs U. S. Friendship in Future

Washington, Nov. 17 (AP)—A Frank bid for increased American aid launched the youthful Shah of Iran on his month-long goodwill tour of the United States today.

The dark-haired young monarch addressed himself directly to President Truman last night at a state dinner which followed by a few hours his arrival from Tehran in Mr. Truman's plane, the Independence.

Iran, he said, needs American friendship, and hopes for "even closer cooperation and intensified help in the future."

The Shah—His Imperial Majesty Mohammed Reza Shah Pahlavi—made his remarks in response to words of greeting offered by the President.

His oil-rich nation, an uneasy neighbor of Soviet Russia, already is receiving some American assistance. Iran is one of 14 countries sharing in the new U. S. $1,314,010,000 arms-aid program, and its 115,000-man army has American advisers.

President Truman, in a dinner toast to the Shah, said that the U. S. and Iran honor their pledges, but that America has been dealing with "a great power that does not believe in keeping its contracts," he was obviously referring to Russia.

The arrival of the Shah signalled the start of a ceremonial official welcome.

After a warm greeting at the airport from Mr. Truman and members of the cabinet, he rode the building later.

The building will facilitate the work of 11 toll collectors and five other employees of the bridge. Toll booths will be installed near the building later.

Accident Occurs on Peek'moose

Joseph Donahue Taken to Hospital After Being Lifted From Bad Location Was With Man

Victim and Companion Became Separated From Other Hunters

A 21-year-old Jackson Heights hunter, seriously injured in a 200-foot fall down the steep slope of Peek'moose Mountain, was rescued from an almost inaccessible spot Wednesday afternoon by volunteers.

The youth, Joseph Donahue, who is employed at the Woodland Acres Inn, about a mile and a quarter from the spot where he fell, was rushed by ambulance to the Kingston Hospital, where his condition was at first reported as "critical."

Hospital authorities said this morning that Donahue's condition showed marked improvement during the night and he is now listed as "fair."

This is the story, as gathered by state police and reported this morning from the Lake Katara subdivision.

Donahue and Edward Teitelbaum, 21, of Astoria, were hunting deer with a party from Woodland Acres Inn. They apparently became separated from the others. About 3 p. m. the two hunters lost their footing on a ledge near the top of Peek'moose Mountain. Both grabbed for small trees, but the tree for which Donahue grabbed broke and he plunged down a steep 200-foot drop, then rolled another 200 feet before coming to rest.

Teitelbaum was able to save himself by climbing on to another tree, which did not break.

Calls for Help

Teitelbaum summoned help. Volunteers began the laborious task of climbing down the cliff, taking with them a saw from the Woodland Acres Inn, on which they raised Donahue with the aid of ropes to the ledge. In the party of volunteers were John K. Orr, 33 Main street, this city; Charles Roosa, of Roosa's Taxi Service; and Abel Avery of West Saugerties. Others assisting were Eugene Nichols, Bob York, Joe Winkler and Bud Schaeffer. It was reported that about 100 additional hunters were on hand ready to lend assistance, if necessary.

Although three of the men were still in the West Saugerties area this morning and could not be contacted, Orr reported that through his wife that Donahue, still conscious but unable to move, lay in water for almost three hours Wednesday while rescuers worked their way to him.

State police were notified and Trooper Ray Dunn of Phoenix assisted in the rescue operations. Dr. Marie Blocher of Phoenix also arrived at the scene and rendered first aid as soon as the injured man was brought to an accessible spot.

Meanwhile, a W. N. Comer ambulance had been summoned and worked its way as close as possible through back roads, waiting at a point above Woodland Acres until Donahue could be brought out.

U. S. Carrying Farm Load
Lubbock, Tex. (AP)—The American farmer will carry the major food load for the rest of the world says Dr. A. W. Young, head of the plant industry department of Texas Technological College.

The American will do this by better methods of farming. These are hybrid seeds, fertilizers, and terracing. Dr. Young foresees a possible crop production increase to tilling better than 50 per cent. He says that atomic science studies will some day result in control of the mutations which give better crops. This atomic improvement will be added to the other three. Dr. Young says that American farmers still have a lot of land compared with some other nations.

Burglar Has His Troubles
Washington (AP)—A passerby spotted a man pounding away on the safe in a restaurant at 4 a. m. That was the beginning of a series of frustrations for the burglar. When police arrived he scuttled for the rear exit—but couldn't find it. He climbed to a skylight and smashed his way to the roof—but the drop to the ground was too far. He crawled into the bedroom of adjoining apartment—but the occupant woke up and chased him down stairs. He crouched in a closet where the officers found him. They came the final blow. When he stood up his pants fell down. They were weighted with $8.10 in small change sales tax collections stolen from the restaurant.

House Painter Held
New York, Nov. 17 (AP)—A 31-year-old house painter was arrested in his home last night as a suspect in the holdup November 4 of a Bronx contractor and his wife in which a pay roll of $5,339 was stolen. Harry Jablon, of 245 Wadsworth avenue, was booked on charges of assault and robbery. Jablon, according to police, is one of the men who at gunpoint forced their way into the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Buiti at 3307 Barker avenue, the Bronx, and seized money which Buiti had withdrawn earlier from a bank to make up the pay roll of his contracting firm. One of the stolen money has been recovered, police said.

MEDINA RECEIVES LETTERS

When he finished presiding over the trial of the 11 Communist leaders, Federal Judge Harold R. Medina wanted only rest and quiet. Instead, he has reaped a strange reward that in its way is as exhausting as the ordeal of the nine months' grueling trial.

Medina has been showered with 50,000 letters from all over the country. Virtually all are congratulatory. They ask him to accept medals, to make speeches, to run for political office. Even with added secretaries the judge hasn't been able to read or even open all the messages.

Besides all this the judge is getting long-distance telephone calls from well-wishers at scattered points.

So, far from lolling around in an easy chair, the weary Medina is hard at work grinding out answers to the dozen of letters that require replies. He is beginning to think that rest is an illusory state never to be attained.

The judge has talked some about the letters he's received and they tell us quite a bit about the character of the American people. The individuals who are writing him now, he says, all seem to feel that it would have been improper to comment before the trial was ended. They did not wish to be charged with seeking to influence him.

This attitude is in drastic contrast to that shown by the many who did write during the trial. Most of these correspondents piled violent abuse upon the judge, for they were the friends of the defendants. But some took the other side. "They belonged mainly to the school that demands 'look the bums up' or 'give 'em a fair trial and hang 'em.'"

The post-trial response seems striking for several reasons. It must be gratifying to all Americans to know that so many of their fellow citizens are governed by the code of fairness that is expressed or implied in these messages.

Furthermore, it is unusual for a judge to draw such tributes as have poured in. Americans write their congressmen or their newspapers with great frequency and gusto. But they don't often comment on the conduct of the judiciary.

Possibly most vital of all, the tremendous flood of letters suggests that Americans are deeply aroused over the threat of communism in their lives. While the tedious trial was dragging along on the back pages of their newspapers, they seemed little concerned. But once the result was known, they disclosed that they had been watching carefully to see how the judge and jury would meet the problem.

If they had been interested simply in smacking the Communists down hard, they would not have waited so patiently until the end to voice their views. That they decided to write appears to indicate, therefore, that these citizens believe the law under which the defendants were tried is a fair one and that the outcome was fairly arrived at.

They clearly wanted an answer to the Communist menace, but they wished it to be the right one. Now the U. S. Supreme Court must decide whether the defendants' conviction and the law that brought them into court are indeed fair and sound in an America always careful to guard its freedoms well.

GAINING NAVY CONFIDENCE

Admiral Forrest Sherman, the new Chief of Naval Operations, has given evidence that he intends to do all he can to smooth the troubled waters flowing around the Pentagon.

With only a personal letter of reprimand, he restored to active duty Captain John Crommelin, the officer suspended October 6 for releasing to the press a confidential Navy letter charging that the Navy was dissatisfied with current defense policies.

Secretary of Navy Matthews had denounced Crommelin for "faithlessness and insubordination."

Sherman's step surely will help to rebuild confidence among disgruntled Navy men who must somehow be won over if the desired

"SOUTH PACIFIC"

It is, I suppose, hard to realize that "South Pacific," for all its lovely song, is a serious dramatic play dealing with one of the most vexed problems facing the human race in these days. In the United States, this matter is called "miscegenation," by which is meant marriage outside of one's kind.

In many states of this country marriages are illegal if the parties to it are not of the same color. This applies not only to Negroes, but to other peoples. It is impossible to say, "of the same race," because so little is known of the races of man, although in Hitler's time, the racial theories of Houston Stewart Chamberlain and others like him were emphasized for political purposes. Yet, no one could regard the Germans as a "pure race," for they have been invaded so often by so many varieties of man. Similarly, it would be difficult to ignore the role of the Moors in southern Europe and the mixed relationships among the Romans, the Goths, the Vandals, Mani's armies . . . need one go on?

Of course, moral law can recognize no such rule of life. All men and women are God's children. In the earlier history of European civilization, national or racial differences were rarely recognized. The Greek and Roman conquerors took their women where they found them, and although concubinage may not always have produced legitimate offspring, the descendants of such unions influenced the general character of the European population. Similarly, all through Asia and in northern Africa, the mixtures of men have been continuous.

Asiatic women have generally held a fascination for western men. They are so mild and generous and when they are beautiful, they are without compare. And one needs only to be married into a Chinese family, to discover that women as wives are universally patterned and that beneath the pigmentation of the skin is a woman, a wife, a mother.

I watched the story unfold in "South Pacific" and could only throw my own mind back to my lovely first wife, now deceased, and to the days when we discussed the racial line of demarcation as a practical problem that we had to solve, just as it faced those in "South Pacific." We did solve it, and happily married to understand this movement of good women, I found my husband, from one man to another, time after time.

This is nothing to push aside as a hateful subject not to be discussed, and "South Pacific" does discuss it. Of course, the authors are delicate and the music lulls the best, but there it is to be seen and felt by those who follow the tale through to the end. It is the gift of the story and it is brought to a happy ending when Mary Martin and Ezio Pinza and his two Eurasian children form a family as the curtain falls. But there is also an unhappy ending when Lieutenant Cable, "cannot marry Liat, the Indo-Chinese girl, whose mother, Bloody Mary, is so wonderfully simple and yet so utterly Asiatic. The boy from Princeton cannot go through with it."

And so Mr. Oscar Hammerstein meets the problem both ways, the way of Kipling, and the way of those of us who saw the soul rather than the pigment. Maybe he offers a choice, maybe he is being realistic. For the problem is met variously, but rarely with such happiness as was my lot. (Copyright, 1949, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

NASAL CARRIERS AND TONSILLITIS

In residential, preparatory, schools, the school physician, nurses and teachers are always on the alert for the first signs of an illness in any of the students. They are aware that one case of measles, diphtheria, scarlet fever, tonsillitis, can start an epidemic. Accordingly the student is immediately isolated in the school hospital until the cause of his symptoms is discovered.

One of the dangerous illnesses occurring in schools is tonsillitis, for, while it does not last long, it is extremely painful and may be the forerunner of rheumatic fever followed by heart disease—childhood's greatest enemy.

It is not necessary for an individual to be stricken with diphtheria or tonsillitis in order to infect others. He may be a "carrier" of the organisms causing these and other diseases, and thus spread the disease.

In "The British Medical Journal," Drs. G. T. Cook and J. Munro, in a study of 340 boys housed in five separate buildings developed tonsillitis. They found that the outbreak spread rapidly through a house during the three weeks after the return of a boy who carried in his nose the organisms—streptococci—which cause tonsillitis. During the first 18 days after the return of H, 47 new cases occurred in dormitories and nine among these, in single rooms; the number of dormitories and single rooms being 47 and 85 respectively. This meant that the chances of becoming infected were more than twice as great in dormitories than in single rooms. Also it was found that the dust in dormitories contained the organism causing tonsillitis before the epidemic in dormitories occurred.

Experience of this and other epidemics has shown the frequent association of heavy nasal carriers with outbreaks of streptococcal tonsillitis in residential schools.

Nasal as well as throat swabs should be obtained in all cases, however mild the disease; heavy nasal carriers should be treated until their swabs are negative. This is especially necessary in the early stages of an attack before the widespread contamination of the environment—carpets, curtains, bed linen—and the build-up of a carrier rate, has occurred.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

Los Angeles — It looks like Jimmy Roosevelt is definitely coming into his own.

Once a callow youth, floundering under the weight of a famous name, Jimmy dealt with almost anybody who came along. At one time he was the political pal of Mayor James Curley of Boston. Another time his life insurance sales to George Washington Hill of the American Tobacco Company didn't help the Roosevelt family.

However, Jimmy is 42 now, and the years have done something to him. He has excellent political judgment. He is careful about friends. And most important of all, he is now able to chart a straight political course. Jimmy knows what he wants and goes after it.

One of the most interesting developments about Jimmy Roosevelt is the group of youngsters around him. It is reminiscent of the young Democrats of his father's day, the young people who would fight and die politically to defend the name of Roosevelt. Those young Democrats of 1933 have now put on age, in some cases moult and crust. But a new generation has come along in California and their adoption of Jimmy Roosevelt is probably greater than that once given his father.

Jimmy is amazingly popular in California. When he goes into a restaurant, a political meeting or any place where people gather the music stops or else begins, or a whisper sweeps over the room. You can write it down that he can win the Democratic nomination for governor in a walk, whether Truman supports him or not.

Note — The President's ire at those who supported Eisenhower before the Philadelphia convention has changed toward Mayor O'Dwyer of New York, Jack Arvey, the political boss of Chicago, Senator Douglas of Illinois and various others. His peevishness against Jimmy Roosevelt probably results not so much from the Eisenhower incident, but from his jealousy for all things Rooseveltian.

Adm. Sherman Shows Spunk
 On the west coast where the admiral's first hatched, the Roosevelt things are a lot different.

now that Adm. Forrest Sherman has taken over the navy helm. He's steering a steady course and rebellious admirals are climbing back aboard.

Sherman's policy is friendly but firm. He demonstrated that he could use an iron hand not only by abolishing Operation 23, the Navy propaganda unit, but by cracking down on another Navy propaganda nest at Pensacola, Fla. There, the Navy was even micrographing form letters of complaint to congressmen, then handing them out to the congressmen's constituents to sign.

But Admiral Sherman sent his deputy, Adm. John Price, to Pensacola, and stopped the smear campaign. Adm. John Reeves, in charge of the operation, is being replaced and will retire in April.

At the same time, Sherman showed he wasn't a yes-man by letting Capt. John Crommelin off with a sharp reuke. This was a decision which Rear Adm. George Russell, the navy judge advocate, urged Sherman to duck, and dump in the lap of Secretary of the Navy Matthews.

But Sherman replied: "Crommelin is under my command, and I'll take the responsibility." Though Sherman had been smeared by his fellow admirals as a "Quisling," he didn't barge into his new office swinging the ax. He started by "going to school," and calling in each bureau chief to bring him up to date on naval affairs. Results? Fence and order, beginning to come back to the armed forces.

Note: Admiral Sherman decided upon a naval career at the age of six when he first set foot on a battleship, the U.S.S. Kentucky. As early as 12 he showed seamanship and spunk while sailing off the New England coast in a whaleroot with his grandfather. Several miles off shore, his grandfather died at the helm, and young Sherman brought the boat home safely through choppy water.

Two neighboring governors — J. Bracken Lee of Utah and John W. Bonner of Montana — got into a row over mine subsidies the other day at a closed meeting of 13 western governors at Salt Lake City.

The row started after the governors heard a mining industry spokesman, Carl Trauerman, plead for higher tariffs, a free gold market and — of all things — federal subsidies. This is the first time the mining industry, considered a bulwark of free enterprise, has joined the chorus crying for a government handout.

Montana's Bonner agreed that federal subsidies were necessary to keep the small mines operating, argued that it was sound defense policy to have strategic metals pouring into our stockpile.

But Utah's Lee snorted that the "less we have to do with the federal government the better," and urged the governors not to undertake anything they couldn't do on their own.

Lee's little speech didn't go over with the mining industry, however, which happens to be the principal industry in Utah and which does not agree with the G.O.P. cry of "Welfare State" at least when it comes to mining.

Note: Lee also opposed federal aid to education, which has been sponsored in Congress by Utah's Sen. Elbert Thomas. In fact, Lee was against everything that emanated from Washington—even tangled with California's Gov. Earl Warren over rent control. Warren maintained that rent control was still necessary in some California cities—no matter what the situation was in Utah.

Lucas' Leadership
 A remark on the Senate floor cost Arkansas' Sen. Bill Fulbright $20.

On the closing day of Congress, Fulbright paid glowing tribute to Senate Minority Leader Scott Lucas. Mischievously the senator from Arkansas concluded: "I have only one regret, that, as Lucas' leadership in the Senate is developing, the quality of his golf game is rapidly deteriorating."

Afterward, Lucas challenged Fulbright to defend his words on the golf links. Shooting a neat 76, Lucas not only limped Fulbright but collected a $20 bet.

Fourteen past presidents of the local Kiwanis Club attended a session in their honor at the Governor Clinton Hotel.

De-Icer Is Intermittent
 Los Angeles (AP)—De-icers for airplanes work best if the heat is intermittent, says Dr. Myron Tribus of the University of California. His experiments show that when ice is formed heat is released. This heat can be used to aid de-icing if the heat is turned on only at proper intervals.

More than half the main lines of American railroads are now built of rails weighing more than 100 pounds per yard.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

Washington, Nov. 16—The University of Maryland has expelled a student for rioting in an outburst of morose nonsense vaguely intended to hearten the football team. A mob of students made a bonfire on a highway and rocked cars which were stalled by the fire. Some of the drivers were threatened with rough-housing, but none was attacked.

Joseph D. Tydings, the president of the student body, a son of Millard Tydings, the senator, in the name of the student body, promptly apologized to all motorists who suffered inconvenience.

This decency was unseasonably out of date and Senator Tydings had better admonish that kid that he will get nowhere in our politics disparaging mob violence.

As these essays have pointed out, riot, even to the extent of insurrection against constituted government, has been the tradition of the Democratic Party and its auxiliary, the C.I.O., from the time of the Flint, Mich. riots which found Governor Frank Murphy in a yellow funk and actually established the C.I.O. The late Roosevelt, who never even had a schoolyard fight because his mama had him too precious for traffic with sons of the Common Man, tried to hold that a riot was divisible into all the petty misdeeds which make it up. He said it was only multiple assault, multiple disorderly conduct and multiple mischief. However, that only showed what a had lawyer he was, confirming the judgment of the Columbia University Law School, because these things, done in concert, become greater crimes by the chemical action of the law.

Years later, when the United Auto Workers, the same Klux that frightened the coward, Murphy, organized a picket line with pickets at the North American Aviation plant in Inglewood, Calif., the same Roosevelt called out a regiment of regulars to break it up. "This time he found 'violent insurrection' in a relatively gentle outrage.

The difference was simple. In the first case, the client, that is, the peaceful action against the pickers. The noting chief said $200 on behalf of the policemen and firemen's union to the strikers' committee. Grandville Scott, a union attorney, seemed to be a prime moving force in the organization of racketeers. In the courtroom of Judge Charles W. Smith made the following statement: "You have seen what they did to them in Minnesota 20 of them (goons) took 30 seats out of that Cuddey plant and took hell out of them. They haven't even found ten of them. They busted up all the machinery. That is going to be the pattern for the future. The abuse of employees who were not on strike was carried to their homes. Police protection was inadequate and evidence of partiality to the strikers is strong."

The University of Maryland, young Mr. Tydings and the peace-loving students who are at odds with the union, the riot and the tentative rocking of citizens' automobiles were, after all, only a laboratory exercise preparatory for the abundant life in the Roosevelt-Truman morality and public order.

Quoting remarks "made by Sam Parks, president of Local 25 of the United Packing House Workers," the report says: "No body is going into that plant. If you see police around pay no attention to them. We'll take away their guns, their stars and their clubs and rough them up. If they send the army, we'll take care of them, too. Got this straight. We don't care for Truman, the army or the police. If you abuse our value your car, stay away. 'This is a war and we are going to win. This plant rightfully belongs to us and we are going to enforce our demands.'"

This was in Chicago, however, where Captain George T. Barker, an expert in the field of union (and other) activity, but finally enforces the law. He was able to say to the House committee who wrote this report that brother Parks' remarks were mere wind effects and that if Parks had attempted to act out his program he and his goons would have been "busted."

In South St. Paul, however, automobiles were turned over. A prisoner was rescued from the cops by comrade goons and four policemen who tried to open the picket line in compliance with a court injunction, were badly beaten.

In Newport, Minn., more than 200 rioters with clubs invaded a plant, dragged out the employees, beat them up and fetched them to the union hall. Sashes, desks, filing cabinets and other property were destroyed.

At Toledo, the Morrell plant's building was blockaded with trees, a derail switch was thrown and the railroad workmen were stoned and beaten. Three days later the tracks were blocked again and this time the ties were dashed with clubs and axes. At Chicago, a blockade was set up, freight-car journal boxes were smashed, and coupling pins were removed.

As to Omaha, the report says, "testimony indicates that the chief of police, along with the county attorney, was unopposed in the peaceful action against the pickers. Buildings Are Levelled
Tokyo, Nov. 17 (AP)—Several buildings were leveled on the island of Guam late today as the fury of a monstrous typhoon was expected to hit the island tonight. Direct communications with the island had been lost by the U. S. Air Force here. An air force spokesman said it was not known what type of buildings were destroyed. At last reports the control tower on the island was still standing. Earlier an undetermined number of Superforts and transport planes were flown to Iwo Jima for safety.

More in War
The "Queen Elizabeth," as a luxury liner, can accommodate 2250 passengers and 1250 crew. As a troop transport, during World War II, she often carried 15,000 soldiers on a single crossing.

The National Geographical Society says the Belgian Congo produces 60 per cent of the world's known output of uranium.

ROSENDALE NEWS

Is Engaged

Rosendale, Nov. 17—At an engagement party held at their New York home, Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Burns of the Bronx and Rosendale announced the engagement of their daughter, Emma, to Nicholas, David, Pezzello, of Tilton. The marriage will take place February 12 in New York.

Church Gets Painting

Rosendale, Nov. 17—Peter LoBello, Jr., well-known local artist, recently completed a copy in oils of "The Christ" by Sallman. The painting was presented by LoBello to the Rosendale Dutch Reformed Church at the regular meeting of the church, Sunday. It was accepted on behalf of the church by the Rev. Albert Shultis and dedicated to the glory of God for the inspiration of worshippers. The picture was hung in the vestibule facing the entrance to the church.

Grangers Hear Talk

On Concrete Bricks

Rosendale, Nov. 17—An unusually interesting example of turning waste into production and profits was revealed in the talk by Earl Sahler, of Kerhonkson, which headlined the program at the regular meeting of Rosendale Grange, 1501, Monday evening. Sahler, a member of Rosendale Grange, told how he converted a formerly useless sand bank into concrete bricks. A husky, energetic, indefatigable worker, the manufacturer of his own bricks in addition to operating a chicken and dairy farm.

Sahler stated that the bricks are known commercially as Kerhonkson Dunn brick. They are variegated, and made by using cement, sand, crushed stone and color-sol. At the present time output is confined to clay-red, blue-black, gray and yellow. By next spring, brown, green and crimson, which is actually more on a lavender shade, will be added.

The bricks test at a pressure point of 3,480 pounds, and will take up to 25 per cent moisture. Operating by himself Sahler can turn out 3,000 bricks per day. The full capacity of the machine is 15,000 per day with four operators. The plant has been in commercial production for a period of three weeks. After being taken from the brick-making machine, the bricks are placed on drying racks and when dry are placed in storage for a period of ten days before shipment. Concrete bricks do not warp as they are not baked. Concrete bricks are cleaner to handle than clay bricks.

Henry Mollenhauer, assistant lecturer, was in charge of the program, which included a reading by Mrs. Frank Simpson entitled "The Monkey's Disgrace," several songs and a game of musical chairs, which was won by Mrs. Edward McCaffrey. She was presented with a pumpkin. Mollenhauer explained that the pumpkin was obtained from special stock of Abe Jansen. It resembled a ground in shape and color, and is reputed to have a very sweet flavor.

Worthy master, George Mollenhauer, announced the following committees for the year: publicity, Mrs. Peter LoBello, Jr.; Mrs. George Mollenhauer; and Henry Dittmar; legislative, Mrs. Ferdinand Fiedler; Mrs. Cornelius Heising and Mrs. Edward Klepa; juvenile, Mrs. Edward McCaffrey; Mrs. Fred Rooten and Mrs. Peter LoBello, Jr.; Mrs. Gustav Claus was appointed as flag bearer, and Mrs. Russell Tenure as director of the degree team.

There will be special music by the choir, soloist Mrs. Peter LoBello, Jr., with Dorothy Schneider at the organ. The service is open to anyone wishing to attend, in addition to Grange members.

Guardsmen Assist At Lions Meetings

The Kingston Lions Club has inaugurated a new system of opening its regular Tuesday noon luncheon meetings. A number of the 156th Field Artillery, New York National Guard, will present the National Colors at each meeting while club members sing "American" and recite the Pledge of Allegiance.

The new opening ceremonies were adopted by the club's board of directors and arranged through the cooperation of Colonel Frank Harkin, commanding officer of the Guard unit. Each Tuesday for the next month a different National Guardsman will be present for this duty. He will be in civilian clothes.

The men will be assigned this duty by their commanding officer and will be rotated each week. They will be known as Flag Wardens. At the opening of the meeting, the warden will remove the flag from its stand and will "present Colors" for the Pledge of Allegiance and will return the Colors to its stand after grace. "The whole idea is to form a relationship between the Guard and the service clubs," according to Alvin Feigenstein, editor of "The Weekly Post," official club publication. The Guardsmen will report to their battery with their impressions, thoughts and ideas on the Lions meetings.

Today's Business Mirror

By RADER WINGET

New York, Nov. 17 (AP)—Supporters of retail price fixing under state fair trade laws are gathering their strength for a renewed onslaught against their enemies.

They are choosing two types of weapons in their newest battle of a war that is nearly two decades old.

Their first weapon is an educational campaign to gain wider public acceptance of their basic idea that the nation's economic health is protected when customers pay the same price for the same thing in all stores.

The second weapon is enlistment of big advertising agencies and trade associations in the campaign to use fair trade laws more widely in fixing retail prices.

The leading organization in the entire movement is the American Fair Trade Council of Gary, Ind., and New York. The non-profit association draws its membership from manufacturers of consumer goods. The council opened its annual two-day convention in New York today.

Its president is John W. Anderson, who keeps the council's administrative offices in Gary, Ind., where he is head of the Anderson Co., manufacturer of automobile accessories. A council spokesman has an office in New York.

Anderson is an outspoken foe of price cutters. And when he says "price cutters," he shakes the room with his angry emphasis.

"Fair trade protects the consumer against quality dilution and extortionate pricing," says Anderson. "This convention aims to show that fair trade obstructs the monopoly of distribution. We are going to establish that fact with more people in more places, more effectively."

Advertising agencies are being told that their national advertising campaigns promote public good-will for their product. And the council adds "fair trade protects that good will."

Trade association executives are being indoctrinated with the fair trade idea so they can carry the message back to their members who are in a position to use fair trade practices.

Approaching the public directly is a newly formed group called the Bureau of Education on Fair Trade. It is backed solidly by the National Association of Retail Druggists.

Their plan centers at the moment in Rhode Island where retail druggists are spreading the gospel through luncheon meetings, civic groups, over the radio and in the press. What experience the bureau gains in that test-tube campaign will be applied on a nationwide basis in a three-year publicity drive costing an estimated $300,000.

Fair trade started in California in 1931 in the depression price decline. The law permitted manufacturers to fix the price at which his product was sold at retail. That established an effective floor for prices. One intent was to halt frantic and often fruitless price wars being waged to boost sales as the depression deepened.

Other states followed the California lead. They were drawn together under federal protection with passage of the Miller-Tydings Act in 1937 that made legal the price-fixing of goods moved in interstate commerce.

Today the fair trade laws are on the books in every state except Texas, Missouri, Vermont and the District of Columbia.

The Supreme Court of the United States has upheld fair trade laws as a means for protecting the manufacturer's good-will, built up by his trade mark, from damage caused by price cutting.

So far every effort to upset fair trade price fixing has failed. That includes campaigns within states and at the federal level. The most recent victory came in Florida. The state Supreme Court declared the state fair trade law unconstitutional, but the state Legislature within a matter of weeks repealed the law with a slight change sufficient to come within the limitations of constitutionality.

Bills to repeal the Miller-Tydings Act in Congress all have died with adjournment of Congress.

One thing that all upholders of fair trade fear is the charge of anti-trust law violations. They are ultra-careful to steer clear of the slightest hint of conspiracy to fix prices in restraint of trade contrary to anti-trust laws.

Manufacturers are sure they have the right to fix prices under fair trade laws to protect their trademarks. Some of them are not so sure that any part of that right extends to retailers who do not own the trademarks.

There is a distinct feeling of coyness on that score between retailers and manufacturers. The men who make the products want to keep control of the price. They would not like to give that power to retailers.

And they note that the greatest part of the agitation against all fair trade price fixing comes from retailers.

Tax Free Election

Elkville, Ill. (AP)—This mining village elected a magistrate, but the noteworthy angle was economic rather than political. The special election judges and clerks worked for nothing. The ballots and notices were donated. Everett Hickman, who was elected, was quite happy. So were the taxpayers.

Church Assembly To Bring Many to Local Auditorium

Kingston is serving this week-end as the center of activity for Jehovah's witnesses of north-central New York. The Christian organization is holding a three-day assembly for New York Circuit 2 A. Delegates, all ordained ministers, have come with their families from as far away as Albany, Schenectady, Glens Falls, and Amsterdam.

According to convention manager Charles Elvy, of Albany, more than 500 will attend the main sessions which will be held at the Kingston Municipal Auditorium.

Friday evening's program will be opened with the address of welcome by the chairman of the assembly, Samuel B. Friend, of New York. Friend is out by the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society of Brooklyn, New York, the international headquarters of Jehovah's witnesses.

Following the opening address, demonstrations will be conducted to effectively show the assembled ministers how to improve the conducting of regular service meetings and the Theocratic Ministry School. The school is a weekly course of instruction held for the benefit of those who desire to equip themselves for the Christian ministry. Students and ministers benefit by the manual and instruction on Bible subjects, grammar and proper word usage, construction of talks and speech outlines, as well as platform conduct. Students give talks and receive constructive criticism. Written reviews are also given and graded. Saturday program includes three discourses in the afternoon on "Developing Good Habits" in study, meeting attendance, and service, following in the evening by the circuit actively meeting wherein the past six months' activities will be reviewed with an eye toward greater expansion in the next six months. By Saturday night it is expected that close to 400 will be present.

On Sunday morning there will be a baptismal service at 9 o'clock. In the afternoon at 3 o'clock the widely advertised public lecture on "The Only Light" will be delivered by S. B. Friend at the municipal auditorium. While the public has been especially invited to attend this lecture, all sessions of the assembly are open to the public. There is no admission fee charged and no collections are ever taken at the meetings of Jehovah's Witnesses.

During the week-end Jehovah's Witnesses will be visiting the people of this city at their homes and business places for the purpose of calling their attention to the importance and necessity of careful Bible study. Elvy pointed out that Jehovah's Witnesses are not seeking members. "Our work is simply Christian education, leaving out the creed and philosophies of men," he said.

Librarian Doubts Paper Will Still Hold Good

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 17 (AP)—New York state's librarian dashed cold water today on a life-guard's hope of claiming 6,000 acres of valuable land near Schenectady, N. Y.

Jim Craig of Miami Beach, Fla., reported yesterday he had fished from the Atlantic a well-preserved parchment, dated 1739, granting letters of patent of the land to three men.

Charles F. Gosnell, the state librarian, said such a patent was issued 210 years ago by George Clarke, probably the colonial governor.

He said he would invite Craig to send the parchment document to Albany for examination. However, even if it is genuine, Gosnell said Craig's claim to the land "is a matter of some doubt."

About 81 per cent of the soft coal mined in the U. S. is moved by railroad.

President Could

Dec. 1, Mr. Truman could trot out the Taft-Hartley Act and declare a national emergency. Then, under that law, and whether Lewis and owners liked it or not, Mr. Truman would have to set up a fact-finding board.

This board, almost certainly would report back to Mr. Truman before the Dec. 1 deadline. Then Mr. Truman would take the next step provided for under the T-H Law.

He'd ask for an injunction, or court order, forbidding a strike for 80 days. The purpose of the 80-day delay under the law is to give both sides in a labor dispute more time to settle it.

After that 80-day delay, though, Lewis would be free to strike. But these two courses open to Mr. Truman raise some questions.

What's the difference between the fact-finding board which the President could set up without using T-H? If both sides accepted—and the board held set up if he used T-H?

The first board would make a recommendation on what it thought was a fair settlement of the dispute.

The T-H board can't make recommendations but its findings are made public. So, in effect, its findings would amount to a recommendation.

Why wouldn't Lewis be willing to accept that non-Taft-Hartley fact-finding board? He might accept.

But Lewis never has wanted a third party like the government to step into his affairs when there was a chance he might not get what he wanted.

Suppose Lewis and the owners accepted this non-T-H board and agreed there'd be no strike or lockout for 60 days.

Say the board was set up next Monday. Those 60 days would keep the miners digging coal into the middle of January, helping the country through the winter.

But suppose at the end of those 60 days, in mid-January, Lewis refused to accept the board's recommendations. What then?

He'd be free to strike. But wouldn't that be the worst time for a strike, from the standpoint of the country? No, it's by then enough coal had been mined to carry the nation through until spring.

But if Lewis wanted to strike in mid-January, and it would hurt the country, then Mr. Truman could use the T-H Act, set up by the T-H Fact-Finding Board, get a court order, and delay the strike another 80 days.

That would prevent a strike until April, the beginning of warm weather. But couldn't Lewis defy the court order and let his men strike? He might, but maybe he wouldn't.

He tried that before. He and his union paid $1,420,000 in fines this week for contempt of court in a 1948 walkout. Lewis would think twice before risking that again.

2 Superforts Hit

They were out looking for the flames in the fog when Shattuck arrived.

A few minutes later a gunner called into the sheriff's office, too excited to give his name. He said he had shot down one of the planes.

Highway patrolmen and sheriff's deputies from four counties circled for nearly three hours across the fields and streams of the Delta country before they found the wreckage of both planes.

The still burning craft from the 326th Squadron was sighted first. The bodies of its soldier crewmen were charring in the blaze. The last four of its serial numbers—6364—were the only marks of identification.

But from this the Spokane air base was able to determine it was one of 13 which started out at 3 p. m. yesterday on a round-robin flight (no landings and return to home base) over Sacramento, San Francisco, Stockton and Salt Lake City. They were at 26,000 feet most of the time.

Searchers were led by a C-54 from the Fairfield-Suisun air force base, which is located near the Delta country. It flew through the fog with a scant 200 feet visibility—just enough to scan the ground.

Capt. K. D. McFarland, information officer of the Spokane air force base, said the other four planes would not all complete the round robin as planned.

They encountered bad weather. Three put down at Hill Field near Ogden, Utah, another landed at McChown air force base near Sacramento. The rest, McFarland said, were still in the air early today without reaching a decision on landing.

Naval Group Hears About P.T. Boats

Lieut. Commander Robert W. Hinsdale, acting commanding officer of the Newburgh Naval Reserve Unit, addressed the members of the Naval Reserve Unit in Kingston Wednesday evening. He gave a highly informative and interesting talk with respect to the tactical and strategic importance of P.T. boats.

He pointed out that originally P.T. boats were used for quick strikes against enemy naval vessels and observed that this was used with great success during World War I by Italy. In World War II however, the duties of P.T. boats were more varied and consisted of patrolling, rescuing downed fliers, attacking landing barges, as well as large naval vessels.

At Guadalcanal the P.T. boats had a very successful career because they were engaging almost every night Japanese landing barges and destroying them. The reason they were so successful was because these boats are highly maneuverable and are small targets.

In the Atlantic fleet Lieut. Commander Hinsdale was in charge of three boats, which were moored at Cherbourg on the French coast and were moved out into the stream for the purpose of drawing fire from forts along the enemy coast in order to enable the allies to spot and destroy these firing points of the enemy.

The commander explained that the modern P.T. boats are 80 feet long with a 20-foot beam and a mahogany hull. They are powered by three Packard engines and have a speed of anywhere from 45-50 knots with a cruising radius of about 1,000 miles. A crew usually consisted of 12 men and two or three officers.

Hiss Trial Opens

New York, Nov. 17 (AP)—Alger Hiss, former State Department official, went on trial today for the second time on perjury charges. Sixty prospective jurors were on hand when Federal Judge Henry W. Goddard called the trial into session. Goddard, 73 years old and a Republican, was appointed to the bench by President Harding in January 1923.

B. & B. Store Is Ready for Trade

The B & B Floor Covering and Juvenile Shop at 101 North Front street, which officially opened on November 8, is ready for full retailing operations today with the receipt of merchandise which was scheduled to arrive last week but was delayed in shipment, the store owners announced today.

The store is operated by Mr. and Mrs. (Bill and Bertha) Klimas, formerly of New York city and now living at Woodstock.

Bill is a veteran of four years in the U. S. Army. He served two years in the Pacific area. He has been in the linoleum business for more than 10 years and has had linoleum for such stores as Rappan, Frieds, Michaels and others in New York city. His wife is a beautician who has given up her trade to help her husband start in business. She will be most of the selling, while her husband is laying linoleum and giving estimates.

Mr. and Mrs. Klimas were unable to find an apartment in Kingston, and are living at Woodstock for the present. They hope to buy a home in Kingston.

The store specializes in linoleum, tiles and other floor coverings, also carries a line of babies' high chairs, play pens and items.

Do You Remember

by SOPHIE MILLER

Sometime back I had mentioned Indian Summer which interested J. Kolts of Esopus avenue who brought an item which he saved from the "Onondaga Star" some 20 years ago, from which I will quote in part:

Dr. Earl Bates, advisor on Indian Summer, says Indian Summer is definitely around full moon in November, after the first hard frosts. The reason? Well, here is the answer in the legend of the Greek split up, save the "lazy farmer," a second chance, taken from "Till Me An Indian Story" by Dr. Bates.

The bluebirds and robins have long since flown to the land of the South Wind. The gathering of the ripened corn in the cleared land beyond the village has been completed by most of the villagers and most of the animals have gathered their winter stores of nuts. However, there are some folk in the village who do not see the approach of winter and say that there is still time for harvest. At length comes the sudden gust of cold wind through the village and the early morning sunrise glistens on the frost sitting on the roofs. Finally the Great Bear in the sky opens his mouth and the first flakes of snow descend and through the veins of the lazy men come the awakening shivers. A desperate chance, he appeals to another chance, or in answer, only the few warm rains of early November.

The Indians call it "lazy-farmers' moon," for it is his last chance to harvest. Because at eventide the golden sunset, changing forms of blue and autumn haze arise like the smoke from the council fire of the red men, pale faces nowadays call the season, Indian Summer.

Dr. Bates says he has found this legend among the Kennedys of Maine, the Chippewas in northern Michigan, Menomonees of Wisconsin, and among the Six Nations of New York and around Bradford, Ontario. He says the first printed reference to it is by a Dutch Calvinist minister of Schenectady, the Rev. Bernardus Freeman, who learned Mohawk, and published translations at Boston, in 1707. He points out that there are earlier Jesuit notes to the effect of a "second harvest" time, but whether that had reference to after-the-rain period, he does not know. The time is, however, definitely around full moon in November after the first hard frosts, Dr. Bates says. Who knows something about local Indian Summer legends?

An item was brought to my attention from the November 6, 1949, Herald Tribune, about old time autos. "Electric Vehicle," which in 1899 operated a fleet of several hundred electric taxis in New York city, was acquired by Pope Manufacturing Co., bicycle makers of Hartford, Conn. Pope, in 1939, acquired the "George B. Selden" patent covering "essential features of gasoline-driven vehicles" and, in that manner, hoped to promote electric automobiles and put gasoline vehicles out of business. Also says "Packard Motor Car Co. which celebrates its 50th anniversary in November, was the first automobile company with a gas-powered engine to sell securities to the public through Wall Street banking firms. There is a photograph of James Ward Packard, founder of Packard Motor Car Co. at the wheel of a 1901 Packard starting an endurance run from New York to Buffalo. He finished second with 29 in the field. The 1901 model was the first popular car in the country to have a steering wheel instead of a tiller for direction.

THE RUMINATOR

A Column of Contrary Opinion
By HUMPHREY B. NEILL

The Ruminator does not profess to be an expert on foreign affairs. Far from it, but even a tyro cannot help but be sorely concerned about international economic conditions.

Conditions abroad today are of the type that in former critical periods in financial history led to serious economic disturbances.

However, we are in a new era—an era of bolstering up other economies in addition to our own. How long the boot-strap system will work before the straps break is anyone's guess.

One of my pet remarks is that we Americans are not internationally minded. We are Americans first and last; still inherently isolationist. We think we're internationalists because we have authorized the spending of billions upon billions for aid to foreign nations, gifts and subsidies.

Let me put it this way: We're internationalists with our tongue in our cheek.

The average man will grudgingly admit that "we ought to help Europe; otherwise Russia will walk in and take over." He won't vote against intervention with his dollars, but he definitely wishes it were not necessary. He'll be glad when (if ever) we return to a condition of "America for the Americans."

Of course the rub is that we cannot possibly foresee a time when we can return to any such condition as this. We are in the international game for keeps. And we're going to lose a towering pile of marbles before we start to win any of them back.

In the course of my work I have occasion to subscribe to and read a huge pile of dope sheets, and periodicals on foreign affairs.

Right now everything one reads is connected with the latest move of the United States, that is termed "integration." ECA Administrator Paul G. Hoffman has just been in Paris to sell the idea to the European nations. But it is going to be mighty difficult to get over the idea quickly. Mercy to say "let's integrate" sounds simple and quite intelligent. However, when you stop to ruminate over the political and economic complexities that have existed within the various nations of Europe for centuries you begin to see it isn't as simple as it sounds in a headline.

Mr. Hoffman had an excellent article in last Sunday's New York Times Magazine. If you read it thoughtfully I am afraid you will have to agree that what Mr. Hoffman asserts is essential — "we must do our part," he says — is going to take a considerable period of time to accomplish. It is no over-night job, that's sure.

He proposes several necessary tasks for Europe—such as aggressive merchandising, better and more efficient manufacturing, extended credit arrangements—all of which constitute major business policies. They would take a long time to organize in the United States where we are accustomed to rapid business development.

Another statement of Mr. Hoffman's is worth a lot of thought. "The problem, therefore, in this dangerous and divided world of today," writes Mr. Hoffman, "is not just to balance Europe's dollar trade, but to balance it at a high level to allow Europe to remain free." (Emphasis added.)

If I comprehend my economic ABC's this means we must underwrite an inflated recovery program—an inflated level of prosperity abroad.

In other words, our task is not merely to bail western Europe out of her postwar slump into which she plunged, but to pull her out and place her on a high living standard. If we do this then Russia's evil Communism will not have an appeal.

This is the policy behind the Marshall Plan.

Space will not permit an analysis of our European plans. They appear sound and intelligent. However, I cannot believe that they can be accomplished quickly. In consequence, I think we must face considerable disappointment in the weeks ahead—and setbacks that will be headlined as "crises."

It is my arm-chair observation that we are side-stepping the cure of the whole postwar problem. The crux is Russia, obviously. We have held her at bay (perhaps) in the cold war, but the cold war persists. From present indications it will persist for a long time to come.

Accordingly, it seems to me that we should face up to Russia NOW and demand a settlement of the cold war. Orations and mud-slinging in the United Nations is accomplishing little except to prolong and increase the enmity. I firmly believe we should get hold of Stalin and tell him in plain language that we're fed up with stalling—boldly assert that the present impasse can only lead to war. If that is what he wants, then let's recognize it now and prepare immediate money and loot which Brick

Ly. A tough approach might bring Stalin to terms. If not, we shall at least be warned IN TIME.

Return of the Gummman
Washington (AP)—Last March a gummman held up Paul Brick in his grocery store. He took Brick's empty wallet but missed a roll of cash in his pocket. He's just made a return trip. This time he got money and loot which Brick valued at more than $1,700.

SHOKAN NEWS

Shokan, Nov. 13—Mr. and Mrs. Denis T. Lynch spent the holiday week-end at their summer home near Tice TenEyck Mountain.

Mrs. Henry Gebel and grandson, Harold Carlton, returned home Sunday following a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Carlson in Union City, N. J.

The special Thanksgiving service of the Ashokan Methodist church charge will take place Wednesday evening, Nov. 23, in the West Hurley church. The service conducted by the Rev. Milton H. Ryan, pastor, will begin at 8 p. m.

Business callers in the hub of the reservoir country Saturday included Edward Ward of Ulster Park. He was driving the largest panel truck—a 1-ton job—seen here in many a day.

Mrs. Philip Chipway and son, George, of Springfield Gardens, returned home Sunday after having spent a few days with their relatives. Mr. and Mrs. George Giles of the old state road.

Older residents recall that it was about this time of the year 1913 that the new concrete bridge over the Tropic creek at Boreville was opened to public traffic. The long iron bridge at Shokan had been swept from its piers, November 9 by the combined pressure of a creek freshet and the backed-up waters of the partially filled Ashokan west basin, thus isolating the north reservoir country from south Ulster, except for the bridge at Boreville. Residents of the town still haven't got quite used to the water barrier of creek and reservoir, as of today.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl North of the mountain road have harvested in a new era.

Local events of this week include the food sale which the Ashokan W.S.C.S. will hold in the Methodist church Sunday school rooms Saturday.

John Adair, local War 2 veteran, is now employed on the night shift at the Downsville waterworks.

Mrs. Walter Zanis of Fort Mitchell, Ky., the former Anna Ruckert, is spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ruckert at the couple's winter home in Flushing.

Although large flocks of wild geese have been seen flying south over the Catskills, most old timers remain unshaken in their belief that winter weather will arrive not long after this annual migration. Others, however, say that they have known the canny birds to miscalculate upon more than one occasion.

Also having a birthday on the 17th is Granville Miller who with his wife resided in the village center last year. A World War-2 veteran, Granville was born at Accord, son of Warren and Angie M. Earl Brundage, retiring olive tax collector who died Monday night following a brief illness, was born at Claryville and spent most of his early life in the Ulster-Sullivan county line sector. He and Mrs. Brundage bought the David Furman farm on the mountain and came here from Denning some 20 years ago. Earl was twice elected collector on the Republican ticket. After selling the farm and removing to the Inez Corley house along the West Butternut-kill, he continued his horse shoeing business as health permitted, and also obligingly delivered The Freeman each evening, winter and summer, to a number of subscribers in his neighborhood.

Wave of Strikes Looms
Vienna, Nov. 17 (AP)—Austria appears slated for a wave of Communist-inspired strikes following the devaluation of the country's currency, the schilling. Devaluation is expected this week-end. Reliable observers said the strikes would demand wage increases to offset rises in living costs which devaluation is expected to bring.

College Enrollment Increases 12,876

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 17 (UP)—Despite a 10 per cent drop in veteran registrations, college enrollments in New York state increased 12,876 this year over 1948.

The State Education Department said today the total in 114 colleges, universities and junior colleges as of November 1 was 336,885. A year ago it was 314,009.

The increase was attributed almost entirely to greater enrollments in graduate studies in education, business, law, medicine and nursing.

The registration for the engineering professions was reported by the education department. The largest enrollment was in colleges of arts and sciences.

The number of student-veterans declined from 120,555 to 108,878.

The department estimated that the number of full-time students rose by 8,000 to approximately 205,000.

Exact figures on full-time and part-time attendance were not available. The department said some institutions do not maintain breakdown records.

Three schools in New York state are among the top four in the country in enrollment.

New York University leads the nation with an enrollment of 47,936.

City College of New York with 30,192, is third after the University of California with 43,426. Columbia University is fourth with 29,153.

While in Europe most starch is made from potatoes, over 90 per cent of that manufactured in the United States is derived from corn.

Buffalo Gets 19.1 Inch Nov. Snowfall

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 17 (UP)—The last of 19.1 inches of snow—the most ever to hit Buffalo at once in November—was melting today.

Forecasters said there would be snow flurries in western New York today and tomorrow. The eastern half of the state was due for light rain or snow today and possibly snow flurries in the mountains Friday.

The weather bureau said the snowfall here hit the 19.1 inches last midnight. That was for a 28-hour period. The previous November record was 14.8 inches on Nov. 16-17 in 1920.

About an inch of snow remained on the ground in Buffalo and some of its northern and eastern suburbs early today.

Growers Are Asked To Cut Output of Potatoes in 1950

Washington, Nov. 16 (UP)—Faced with a price support loss of $60,000,000 on surplus potatoes this year, the government today asked growers to cut production further next year.

Secretary of Agriculture Brannan announced a 1950 program providing for a reduction of about seven per cent in the planting allotment for commercial areas and a lower dollar-and-cents price support.

He set a 1950 production goal of about 335,000,000 bushels.

This year's crop is estimated at 337,000,000 while the 1949 crop totaled 445,000,000.

It cost the department about $230,000,000 to support grower prices of the 1948 crop.

Like this year's crop, next year's will be supported at 60 per cent of parity, the minimum permitted by law. Parity is a figure calculated to give the farmer a fair return for his products.

But the parity price next year will be somewhat lower in terms of dollars and cents.

The secretary said the support rate next year may average about 95 cents a bushel compared with about $1.08 this year.

The 1950 planting allotment for commercial areas totaled 1,137,800 acres, or 85,300 less than this year. The allotment will be divided among individual farms.

Only farms staying within their allotments will be eligible to sell potatoes to the government under the price support program.

Not Satisfied

In announcing the program, Brannan said in effect he was not satisfied with it. But he said it was the best he could set up under the new farm law. He indicated he preferred higher price supports in order to maintain grower income—providing, of course, he had a new method for disposing of surpluses.

Brannan apparently had in mind his farm plan which would permit prices of perishable products to seek their national level. If prices averaged below support levels, the government would make up the difference to the grower in the form of payments drawn on the treasury.

Under that plan, the government would not buy surpluses as it must do now, but would allow them to move into the markets at whatever prices they would bring. But Brannan's plan was not adopted by Congress.

The secretary repeated previous arguments that the present methods of supporting prices by buying surpluses is not very effective in preventing excess production.

"Although the department does not purchase potatoes grown by farmers who overplant their acreage allotments, the effect of the purchases is unavoidably to hold up the price of all potatoes," he said.

The commercial potato planting allotments for 1950 and 1949, respectively, by states included: Maine 120,000 and 141,300 acres; New York (Long Island) 44,200 and 45,200; New York (up state) 40,100 and 46,000; Pennsylvania 66,600 and 64,100; and Idaho 130,300 and 130,900.

them with a camel's hair brush, and arranges them on a flat backing. She fixes them in position with transparent glue. Then she carefully clamps a glass, airtight frame over the design, and behold

Three-Fifths Are Free
New York (AP)—Nearly three out of every five of the nation's home owners have no mortgages on their property, according to a Title Council of America report.

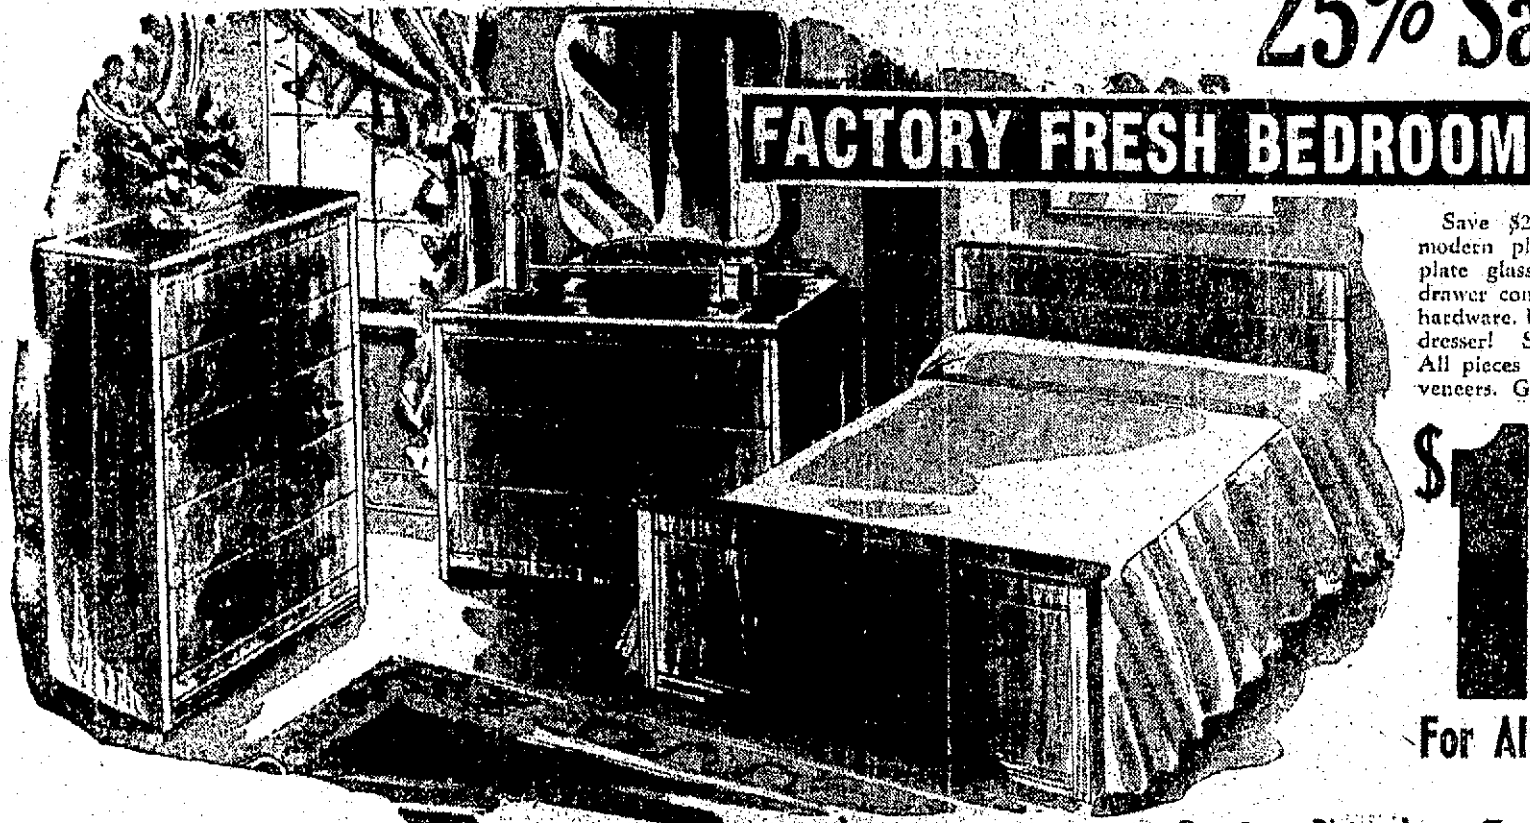

About 64 per cent of small town or rural homes are mortgage-free, says the report which is based on recent government surveys. In metropolitan areas, 44 per cent have no mortgages. The over-all national figure is about 57 per cent. Today's average mortgage of $3,700 is nearly 50 per cent higher than 1940's. But this doesn't mean home owners are more heavily mortgaged than before the war, the Council says. The "readily" value of American homes has been increased by such improvements as air conditioning, modernized bathrooms, kitchens, and better insulation.

Burroughs Arrested After Merry Chase

John S. Burroughs, 71, of Vestal, N. Y., led Trooper Ray Dunn of Phoenix on a merry chase yesterday which eventually ended with Burroughs being placed under arrest at Curry, charged with reckless driving. A fine of $25 was imposed on Burroughs. He was arraigned at Grahamsville.

Trooper Dunn was first notified of Burroughs' presence near Big Indian where two truck drivers reported they had found his car partially blocking the highway and had pulled his car out of the ditch. Dunn was informed that Burroughs was in no condition to continue his journey and he went to the scene near Big Indian only to learn Burroughs had taken off over the mountain by car. Near Curry the car had struck a guide post and there Dunn and troopers from Liberty placed Burroughs under arrest.

Conway Orders TB Tests for 165 Aides

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 17 (AP)—The State Health Department began today a check of health conditions in a downtown building in which two cases of tuberculosis were found among state workers.

The department planned also to X-ray the 165 Civil Service Department employees who work in the state-leased building.

A check of the building was asked by J. Edward Conway, president of the State Civil Service Commission.

Conway said that he was convinced there was "nothing whatever" in the working conditions in the building "that would cause the disease."

The fact that my opinion is not a medical opinion led me to ask the State Health Department to make an all-out survey," he added.

The two cases of tuberculosis, and a possible third case, were found among 38 persons who work in the basement of the building.

Conway said the first case had been uncovered by an employee's personal physician. As a result, he said, X-rays were taken of other employees who worked with the man in the basement.

Charles L. Campbell, administrative director of the Civil Service Department, said the survey was a "precautionary move."

He said the department would take steps to get other quarters if the present ones were found unhealthy.

The building is leased to the state on a yearly basis.

Turkey Says Three Politicians Are Jailed

Ankara, Turkey, Nov. 17 (AP)—Turkey's government announced last night three opposition politicians had been jailed on charges of plotting to assassinate 65-year-old President Ismet Inonu.

The plotters also had planned to murder the leader of the pro-government Democratic Party, Celal Bayar, informants said.

Those arrested were Osman Bolukbasi and Fust Arna, both members of the nation's party executive committee, and Nuri Leblek, chairman of the party's organization in Istanbul.

The government communique also named a member of Parliament, Sadik Aldogan, as a member of the plot. Aldogan, a retired army general, was not arrested because he enjoys parliamentary immunity, the announcement said.

The prosecutor's office said the conspirators planned to kill Inonu and Bayar, then overthrow the Council of Ministers upon publication of a declaration to be signed by Marshal Fevzi Chakmak. Chakmak is one of Turkey's revolutionary heroes who, though listed as an independent, has supported the opposition party.

Inonu has served three straight terms as president. He was elected first in 1938, succeeding the Turkish republic's first president, Gazi Mustafa Kemal Pasha.

Arrest Held Legal

New York, Nov. 17 (AP)—Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan ruled today that Judith Coplon's arrest was legal and that papers taken from her purse by the F.B.I. can be used as any trial evidence against her.

The former government girl's attorney, Archibald Palmer, had contended her arrest was illegal because F.B.I. had no warrant when they took her and Soviet Engineer Valentin Gubitchev into custody last March 4.

The government charges that the papers found in her purse were abstracts from Soviet government papers and that she planned to give them to Gubitchev for passing on to the Russians.

State Association Urges Repeal of Permissive Taxes

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 17 (AP)—State repeal of all permissive local taxes except a county and city sales tax was urged today by the Empire State Association of Commerce.

The association hit at the gross receipts business tax, now levied by Monroe county under the Dewey administration's permissive tax law enacted in 1947.

The business levy, said the association in a statement, violates the principle of ability to pay "since a business enterprise must pay the tax whether it operates at a profit or a loss."

The association said the business impost has "an unavoidable tendency to pyramid" and to increase costs to consumers "more than would be supposed by mere reference to the rate of tax."

The association, made up of Chambers of Commerce and trade associations, said the sales tax was the only equitable levy allowed under the permissive tax law.

"It is a large revenue producer," the association said, adding that the levy "is out in the open and comes reasonably close to being a fair tax upon all the beneficiaries of governmental services."

Other local taxes authorized by the permissive tax law are:

A five per cent admissions tax for places of entertainment, athletic fields and sporting arenas.

A $5 tax on coin-operated amusement devices.

A $5 or $10 use tax on automobiles based on weight.

A five per cent tax on hotel rooms renting for $2 or more per day.

A three per cent tax on restaurant meals and drinks costing $1 and up.

A three per cent tax on utility services.

A tax on the sale of liquor and beer for off-the-premise consumption, not to exceed 25 per cent of the license fee.

Erle county and the city of Poughkeepsie now levy a two per cent sales tax. Syracuse collects a one per cent sales tax that will be discontinued next Feb. 28.

Monroe county is the only one to levy the business tax. It is three-tenths of one per cent on gross receipts from all businesses except financial for which the tax is three-fifths of one per cent on gross income.

Desmond Will Seek Missouri Plan Adoption

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 17 (AP)—State Senator Thomas C. Desmond announced today he would renew his fight for adoption by New York of the Missouri Plan for election of State Supreme Court justices.

Desmond claims the system would eliminate what he calls "back room" nomination of judges by political bosses. He said he would introduce a constitutional amendment proposing the plan during the 1950 legislative session.

Similar legislation sponsored by the Newburgh Republican has died in the Legislature in recent years. Supreme Court candidates now are nominated at party judicial conventions in the state's 10 judicial districts.

Under the Missouri Plan, a non-partisan, seven-member judicial commission in each district would submit the names of three nominees to the governor. The governor would appoint one to the bench. A year later the electorate would confirm or reject the choice. There would be no opposing candidates and the appointed judge would run under no party emblem.

If the judge is rejected, the entire process is repeated.

The seven-member judicial commission, Desmond said, would consist of three attorneys chosen by all lawyers in the district, three laymen appointed by the governor and a justice of the Appellate Division, also designated by the governor.

Three States Tell Of Housing Plans For 500,000 Persons

Boston, Nov. 17 (AP)—New York, Massachusetts and Connecticut housing authority officials told today of vast plans for new, low-rent housing for almost half a million persons in the low-middle income class.

Harold Robinson, director of the Massachusetts State Housing Authority, said his state had a $200,000,000 housing program with rents averaging $33 per unit a month for persons with an income range between $200 and $350.

He told the Conference of National Association of Housing Officials that 1200 units have been completed already and eventually 16,500 families will be housed. Bernard E. Loeb, Connecticut housing authority administrator, said by Jan. 1951, Connecticut can expect to have housing for 10,000 families in the moderate income group.

New York's housing commissioner, Herman T. Stuchman, told the conference his state had a five year plan to provide new housing for 350,000 persons in the low and lower middle income groups in every section of the state.

About $725,000,000 would be spent and will include a vast program of slum clearance and neighborhood redevelopment throughout the state.

Suffering from inertia

Stuchman declared no contracts for state-aided public housing projects would be entered into unless accompanied by municipal requests for slum clearance and neighborhood redevelopment programs. "Too many of our municipalities are suffering from inertia," he added.

The commissioner said he had approved new projects which would provide almost 3,000 cooperatively owned homes and expects to approve new projects within six months for 7,000 more.

These include a housing development of approximately $20,000,000 under a joint plan sponsored by Local 3 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers and the joint industry board of the electrical industry of New York city.

Union members and employees are providing about $1,000,000 of capital funds and the commissioner said, this should be a spur to similar employer-worker cooperatives throughout the country.

Body of Child Found In Lake in New Jersey

Little Ferry, N. J., Nov. 17 (AP)—The drowned body of three-year-old Cecile Bird was found in Willow Lake early this morning.

The child's cousin drowned in the same lake two years ago.

About 100 police and firemen searched for the little girl last night. Her body was found about 1 a. m. today in four feet of water at the foot of an eight-foot bank.

The chubby, brunette youngster was last seen playing in the Wilson Street School yard, across from the lake, about noon yesterday.

Police said she apparently had gone around a fence erected along the lake front to protect school children. There was no evidence of foul play.

The spot where the little girl's body was found by police probing the water with a pole is less than half a block from homes and stores.

Cecile was the youngest of three children. She had a brother,

George, Jr., 10, and a sister, Emily, 7. Bird is a trucker.

OYSTERS ENRICH HOLIDAY FARE

STARTING OFF RIGHT—Oyster Rockefeller is an ideal appetizer for your Thanksgiving feast.

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Turkey is not the only American food to be thankful for. Our oysters are wonderful, too.

Today, thanks to modern refrigerated transportation, air freight and quick freezing, oysters can be found in almost every part of the country. So include them in the regal, all-American Thanksgiving dinner.

Oyster Rockefeller

Ask your dealer for one dozen oysters on the half shell. Serves 4 as appetizer, 12 as main course. Cream: 1/2 cup butter and mix in 1/4 cup fine bread crumbs. Add 1/2 cup frozen chopped spinach, 2 tablespoons minced onion, 1 tablespoon finely chopped parsley. Mix together thoroughly. Season with salt and pepper to taste. Spread generously over the top of each oyster in the half shell. Place filled oyster shells in a large baking or broiling pan or in individual pie pans. Place in hot oven, (400 degrees F.) for 20 minutes. Serve immediately.

Note: Save leftover frozen spinach to serve following day. A wonderful way to prepare it is to mix 1 can condensed mushroom soup with the chopped spinach. Heat together until smooth—about 10 minutes if spinach is completely thawed.

Baked Oysters

(Serves 6)

Drain and pat dry with paper toweling 1 quart oysters. Arrange oysters in buttered baking dish or 8 individual baking dishes. Sprinkle with salt, pepper and paprika. Cover with 1 cup grated sharp cheese. Drain liquid from No. 2 can tomatoes and spread thick pulp over the cheese. Sprinkle again with salt, pepper and paprika. Top with remaining grated cheese. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 30 minutes.

Tidewater Oysters

(Serves 4)

Cover bottom of buttered casserole with 1/2 cup cooked rice. Add 1/2 pint chopped oysters and 1/2 can of condensed celery soup. Dot with butter and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Repeat layers. Cover top with buttered bread crumbs. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 30 minutes.

TOMORROW'S MENU

BREAKFAST: Stewed dried fruit, oatmeal, toasted muffins, butter or fortified margarine, marmalade, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Casserole of mixed vegetables in cheese sauce, whole wheat bread, butter or fortified margarine, stewed pears, lemon cookies, tea.

DINNER: Clam chowder, pilot biscuits, tidewater oysters, broiled tomato halves, corn sticks, butter or fortified margarine, mixed green salad, apple pie, cheese, coffee, milk.

Child Has Own Circus

Downey, Calif. (UP)—Gail Garland came home from school on her seventh birthday and found a circus, clowns and everything in her own backyard. Gail's daddy, Jack Garland, had worked nights for three months to plan the surprise. Inside the big top, made of sheets and mattress covers, Gail gazed starry-eyed at life-size cardboard cutouts of lions, trained seals, a ringmaster and bareback riders on white horses. There were even concessions. All her neighborhood playmates were there. Daddy and Mommy were there, too. But Gail didn't know them at first. They were dolled up as clowns. As a final touch of realism, Garland played recordings made at a genuine circus.

Fire Chief Gives Safety Warning For Yule Season

Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy has issued the following information for safety during the Christmas holiday season:

Places of public assembly, where one hundred or more persons may assemble for recreation or amusement, are governed by state law, therefore the use of flammable decorations and especially Christmas trees is prohibited in places of public assembly, except that the decorations be flame proofed and will not propagate flame.

Factories, hospitals, churches and all places where there are frequent large assemblages are also asked to cooperate in taking all the necessary precautions to avert any possible tragedy during the holiday season.

During the holiday season stores are crowded with shoppers. Counters and tables are stocked with flammable merchandise. A spark from a cigar or cigarette could quickly ignite these materials, causing fire and panic. There is also great danger in crowded stores of shoppers having their clothing burned from lighted cigars and cigarettes.

May I suggest that the management display "No Smoking" signs in prominent places within their stores so that our shoppers may be reminded of the dangers of lighted cigars and cigarettes in crowded stores.

I ask the public to cooperate with the managers of the various stores, and to refrain from smoking while shopping.

HAS "GREEN THUMB" — Although nearing his 100th birthday, Dave Bringle of Oswego, Kans., still works actively in his garden. His "green thumb" produced enough vegetables this season for him and his daughter to can 100 quarts. A great-grandfather, Bringle will soon attend his son's golden wedding celebration.

Sharing Profits With Managers Another of Grand Union's "Famous Firsts"

The adoption of progressive far-reaching employee benefits is one of the many Grand Union "Famous Firsts" that has made Grand Union a leader.

Each year Grand Union sets aside a fixed percentage of the profits as the "Manager's Profit-Sharing Fund". From this fund each manager receives a profit-sharing bonus in accordance with his own store's particular contribution to the fund. Thus the more profitable a store, the greater the manager's share of those profits. The better our business, the bigger his share.

Store managers and Company management together make our business a successful enterprise for everyone. Millions of our customers find shopping at Grand Union profitable too, because of a low price policy which is in effect every day throughout the year.

payment of the $448,171 to the Adirondack mountain county since mid-July.

Nurse and Patient

Killed in Vermont; Another Wounded

Bridgewater, Vt., Nov. 17 (AP)—A 46-year-old nurse and her male patient—the son of a Washington, D. C., lawyer—were shot to death and another man wounded, last night in what police described as a jealous-crazed attack by the woman's husband.
Mrs. Antonio Salois of Bridgewater, and Randolph Ogilby, 38, of Washington, D. C., were shot to death after their automobile was blocked by another machine on a long, one-lane country road.
Shortly thereafter, Lloyd Bramhall, a camp owner, was wounded in the right leg a quarter of a mile from the scene of the double slaying.
Police seized the woman's husband, Antonio Salois, 46, of Belkows Falls, at gunpoint later. He was arraigned in Windsor county Municipal Court and held without bail for the grand jury on two counts of murder and assault with intent to kill.
Ogilby was identified as the oldest son of Charles Fitz Randolph Ogilby, prominent Washington attorney, and a nephew of the late Rev. Ramsey E. Ogilby, former president of Trinity College, Hartford, Conn.
Sheriff Melvin Moore said that Salois, who was estranged from his wife, apparently thought the slain couple and the wounded man were involved in a love triangle.
Ogilby came to Vermont several months ago and had been a patient at Spring Lake Ranch at Cuttingsville. Moore described him as "a mental defective." He moved recently to Bramhall's camp.
Moore said that Mrs. Salois, who had been Ogilby's nurse at the Cuttingsville camp, moved to Bramhall's to care for her patient. He said Salois apparently shot his wife and Ogilby under the mistaken impression they were keeping company and then moved on to the Bramhall home where he got Bramhall to accompany him under the pretext his car had broken down.
As they walked down a country road, Bramhall became suspicious and started to run. The sheriff said Salois shot Bramhall in the leg and left him lying in the road.

Government Wins

Right to Collect Red Leaders' Fines

New York, Nov. 17 (AP)—The government has won permission to insure collection of fines imposed on 11 convicted Red leaders by requiring them to post bonds on any of their assets.
An order authorizing such a move was handed down yesterday by the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals.
The 11 Communists, convicted of conspiring to advocate forcible overthrow of the government, were fined $10,000 each, in addition to prison terms.
Their attorneys had tried to stay the execution of the fines pending their appeals.
In its order, the court ruled the government may investigate to find what assets the Communists have, and then obtain bonds equal to the value of such assets.

Car Crashes Fence

Walter Letus of Wilbur avenue notified police early this morning that a car had crashed through a fence at Wilbur avenue and West O'Reilly street. Officers Thomas Tomaszewski and Henry Ronenberg investigated and reported that fence posts were broken off and a car bumper was found in a field near the fence.

Called 'Death Depots'

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 17 (AP)—"Disposal death depots" is what Albert J. Abrams, director of the Joint Legislative Committee on Problems of the Aging, calls many homes for old folks. Abrams told the New York State Conference on Social Work yesterday: "Discrimination against elderly persons seeking work and the dumping of oldsters into nursing homes and old age homes where too frequently are dismal death depots are a form of legalized euthanasia."

Bishop Much Weaker

New York, Nov. 17 (AP)—Retired Episcopal Bishop William T. Manning, 83, was reported in a "drastically weak condition" today at St. Luke's Hospital. His physician, Dr. Albert C. Herring, said he and his colleagues "are amazed at the bishop's fortitude and endurance, considering the critical condition he has been in for the last five days." The former head of the New York Diocese has been under treatment at the hospital since November 4 for an undisclosed ailment. A hospital spokesman said that the bishop "sinks quite low for some periods, but can be aroused and takes some fluids."

FAMED ARTIST OF FOUND CLEANING STREETS—Ukrainian artist Edward Kozak, one of Europe's greatest muralists and caricaturists, was found toiling as a street cleaner in Hamtramck, a Detroit suburb. Before the war, Kozak won many honors for his murals, but he was better known for his caricatures and political cartoons. A widely-reproduced caricature of Stalin brought the wrath of Soviet agents, and Kozak became a hunted man. Located by a Detroit architect decorator, Kozak was given a job painting murals and now his work is winning acclaim in Detroit. But, says Kozak: "Even if I have to sweep streets, I would be happy if I can remain in the United States."

Truman Sends Message to Parley

Boston, Nov. 17 (AP)—President Truman told New England businessmen today he felt the country was "through the worst part of the adjustment that had to come after the inflationary boom we experienced last year."

But the President advised that the Federal government still was "keeping a careful watch on business conditions."

"We have not been lulled into a sense of false security," he said in a message to a joint conference of New England businessmen and governors of the six states, sponsored by the New England Council, a regional promotional organization.

Mr. Truman urged them to use

"boldness and imagination" in meeting the region's problems. "For a time last summer," the President said, "we were deeply concerned over signs of a downturn in business conditions in some of your most important industries. It is very pleasant to know that employment in the textile and shoe industries and some of the other non-durable goods industries has increased considerably and that the general outlook is now favorable."

"I believe it is safe to assume that the whole country is through the worst part of the adjustment that had to come after the inflationary boom we experienced last year."

"I can assure you, however, that the government in Washington is keeping a careful watch on business conditions. We have not been lulled into a sense of false security."

"I have heard with great interest that you have good prospects for securing the establishment of one or more units of the steel industry on the coast of New England.

"I know what this means to you in connection with the development of your growing industries that require a readily available source of supply for steel. I wish you every success in working out a satisfactory arrangement with the steel companies."

Rabbit Gets Cash
White Sulphur Springs, Mont. — Kenneth Fallang says there's a snowshoe rabbit here about "with about $15 in U. S. currency inside him." The rabbit also contains a Masonic Lodge card if Fallang figures correctly.

Fallang, deputy game warden, says he was dressing an elk when his wallet fell to the snow from his hip pocket. He went home without it, later returned to the scene of his loss. There were rabbit tracks leading to the wallet and other identical tracks where the rabbit had departed. The leather wallet was chewed into strips. A five dollar bill and two-thirds of a $20 bill were missing along with the membership card.

Weed Kills Sheep
Moscow, Idaho — Sheepgrow-

ers in the west are operating with plant experts to fight an innocent-looking weed known as the halogeton. It looks like Russian thistle but contains enough oxalic acid to kill a sheep that eats a pound and a half of the weed. Thousands of sheep have been lost since the halogeton first appeared in Idaho two years ago. Nevada has had similar losses. It is spreading, and is hard to control because it takes hold readily on poor land that is worth less than the cost of killing the weed off. From such bases it spreads to better land and crowds out useful plants.

Video Spots Explained

Ithaca, N. Y. (AP)—Those spots that look like snow on your television screen are explained in a new way by Doctors Henry G. Booker and William L. Gordon, of Cornell University engineering faculty. You could call them pictures of water in the air. When the television signals pass through the watery blobs the rays are scattered in many directions, less.

This scattering causes the "snow" and also causes television sets to receive the signals at extraordinary distances. Ordinarily television signals travel in straight lines and are cut off by the earth's curvature at 50 miles or less.

Hi-Y Chapter Plans Food Sale

Alpha Chapter of Hi-Y will hold a food sale Saturday at 1 p. m. in Montgomery Ward's store. Donations of homemade food may be left at the store or will be collected if the donors will call the Y.M.C.A. 1100. Bookwalter Chapter and the Y.M.C.A. Ladies Auxiliary are cooperating with the Alpha Chapter in making this food sale a success. Entire proceeds will go into the club's scholarship and community fund.

Alpha and Bookwalter Chapters of Hi-Y are a joint high school and Y.M.C.A. activity for high school students. The purpose of Hi-Y is to create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character. Both clubs earn funds to conduct their programs for the school year. Bookwalter Chapter earns its money through dances after football and basketball games at the Youth Center. Alpha Chapter earns its funds through scrap drives, rummage sales and food sales.

Money is used for service projects for this year. These projects are planned for at the end of each school year for the following term. This year's projects are: Hi-Y scholarship, $250; donation to the Y.M.C.A. $250; contributions to polio, cancer, American Red Cross, tuberculosis and Carroll Morris funds.

Members conduct club programs of self-improvement and service to the high school and community. They take active part in the local mid-Hudson area and State Hi-Y assemblies in the Youth in Government program. They send representatives to all conferences and meetings. The clubs put on joint meetings with speakers for special interest programs. They assist wherever possible in the Y.M.C.A. activities on a voluntary basis.

Both chapters are under the supervision and direction of Alfred Bruckert, faculty advisor and Clarence W. Correll, youth director.

Reservations for the Senior play, Little Women, to be given at Kingston High School tonight, Friday and Saturday nights, are almost complete for the last two nights according to reports from the school this morning.

Tonight there are about 250 seats available, several in good sections of the auditorium. However, for Friday and Saturday nights only about 125 each night remain. Reservations are to be made at the high school during school hours.

Because of the senior play this week, the Youth Center Sadie Hawkins dance will be postponed to Saturday, November 26.

The regular Saturday night dance will be held this week, 8 to 11:30 o'clock. Bill Brown's orchestra will play. The center committee and Clarence Correll will be in charge.

Good Taste Today

By Emily Post

(Author of "Etiquette," "Children Are People," etc.)

TEA PARTY NOT FOR EVENING

As this reader suggests, a tea party in the evening would be very curious. "I was going to give a large tea in the afternoon, but as many of the ladies are in business and professions I've had to change my plans and give an evening party. But I've never heard of a tea in the evening. Reception suggests something too grand for my party. What can I call such a party on the invitations, and what should I serve? I am going to have a fine musician to play."

Nothing could be simpler than inviting people to come in on such an evening at such a time to "hear Mr. Scandso play." After his playing, you serve tea or coffee or chocolate and the usual little sandwiches and cakes exactly as you would have served in the afternoon.

Christmas Cards to Little Children

Dear Mrs. Post: How should little children be addressed on their Christmas cards?

Answer: Usually Janny Jones or Jimmy Smith, although Miss Janet Jones and Master James Smith would also be proper. (A girl may be called Miss from the day she is born until she marries. In the present day, Master is almost never used. According to best taste a boy is given no title until out of his teens and old enough to be called Mr.)

Asking Invitation for Girl Friend

Dear Mrs. Post: My boy friend feels that I should go to the wedding and reception of his cousin even though no invitation has been sent. He says they couldn't invite me as they don't know I exist. I believe he should ask them to "invite me or I should stay home. What is right?"

Answer: You are right—absolutely.

Office Clothes

Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please express your opinion about the good taste of women wearing the so-called "plunging necklines" to their business offices?

Answer: From the standpoint of taste and propriety, any "plunging" is unthinkable in an office. (A short "V" is not "plunging.")

Many questions are asked about wearing gloves, hats, shoes and jewelry. Mrs. Post gives suggestions on being well-dressed in her "Letter E-35." To obtain a copy, send 5 cents in coin and a stamped self-addressed envelope to her care of The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. ## Expect Only 15 Minor Leaguers to Get Caught in Annual Baseball Draft Today

Cincinnati, Nov. 17 (AP)—Commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler, who will supervise baseball's major league draft today, predicted not more than 15 minor league players would be selected in the annual grab bag.

"I took a look at that list of draft eligibles," the boss of baseball declared, "and there must be 10,000 names on it. But probably no more than 15 will be drafted." All major league clubs were to be represented at the draft this morning, but four or five were expected to pass up their chance to pick up bush league talent. A year ago New York, Pittsburgh and Brooklyn of the National League, and New York and Boston of the American, did not select anyone. The other clubs picked up 19 players at a cost of $182,500, as compared with 29 costing $275,000 the year before.

The draft proceedings were scheduled to start at 11 a. m. (E.S.T.) but Commissioner Chandler was up late last night helping recede and simplify the baseball season. The session of the 12-man board, which has been working on the regulations for a year, recessed long after midnight.

Group Revises Code
At that time the group had waded through 34 pages of a 66-page revised code, and had made several important changes. The committee was to go back into session this morning, take a "break" for the day, and start again about noon. Minor League Association President George M. Trautman, chairman of the group, said the meeting would continue to 4 a. m. if necessary to iron out all the wrinkles.

Some of the ancient rules have gone by the boards in early sessions, and some which folk thought were in the rule book have been put there for the first time.

For instance: The first statement in the "Objectives of the game" section stipulates that "the object of each team is to win by scoring the more runs." That highly important item was not in the old code.

Another rule which for almost a century has permitted the home team manager to decide whether his team should bat first or last was erased. Under the new regulation the home team bats last. Umpire Tom Connolly of the American League, who has been around quite a while, said he never heard of a manager wanting to bat first, but that the home club has had that right since baseball was invented.

Another far-reaching decision was that a manager desiring to protest a game over an umpire's decision must do so before play is resumed. Under present American League rules such a protest may be made any time before the club leaves the field, while in the National a protest may be lodged any time within 24 hours after the game.

Seven-inning games as one-half a double-header gained approval of the law-makers, although Chandler said he wasn't in favor of such abbreviated affairs.

"I'm a nine-inning ball game man," the commissioner said. "I never liked to play seven-inning games, and I don't like to see 'em. It does something to me when they stop at seven innings."

Wiltwycks Trounce Knicks in Warmup

Wiltwyck Motors stayed in shape for Saturday night's Y Fall League playoff against Cheyenne by drubbing a pick-up squad known as the Kingston Knicks, 62-45, in Monday's preliminary to the Cheyenne-Sickler Delivery clash.

C. Sickler and Frank Parlow paced Wiltwycks with 14 and 13 points respectively. Vince Peck accounted for 20 points for the Knicks.

The score:
Wiltwycks Motors (62) — R. Hunt 11; F. Parlow 13; D. Mathers 9; W. Klein 6; R. Murray 3; F. McElrath 3; R. Sickler 3; G. Hughes 2; V. Peck 20; R. Priest 8; H. Priest 5; J. Brannen 5.

McGuire Selected Lineman of Week

Corvallis, Ore., Nov. 17 (AP)—Curley-haired Stan McGuire said, "I'm overwhelmed."

Told that he had been named lineman of the week in The Associated Press poll today for his sparkling work Saturday in Oregon State's 23-20 upset football win over Michigan State, the 22-year-old right end said, "I just didn't know the coaches taught me."

What they taught him, apparently, was how to kick field goals (one), how to convert (two), how to block kicks (one for a safety), how to snag passes (one paved the way to a touchdown) and assorted other information to the discredit of Michigan State.

A full-time five foot 11 inch, 192-pound player who backs up the line of defense, McGuire was the spark in O.S.C.'s surprising win. But Head Coach Kip Taylor said he wasn't particularly surprised.

"McGuire hasn't turned in a bad ball game all year. He does a workmanlike job on both offense and defense," Taylor said. "He's good at everything he does. He isn't the country's greatest pass receiver and he isn't the greatest defensive player—but for all-around work on both offense and defense, he's one of the best there is."

McGuire didn't get it without competition. Fine week-end performances were reported by a half a dozen other ends as well as players in the rest of the line spots.

The week's nominations:
Ends—Stan McGuire, Oregon State; Bob Wilkinson, UCLA; Leon Hart, Notre Dame; Kenny Powell, North Carolina; Jim Owens, Oklahoma; Bob Moorman, Texas Christian; Terry Downs, Baylor; Ben Proctor, Texas.
Tackles—Ray Krouse, Maryland; Charles Bailey, Dartmouth; Wade Walker, Oklahoma; Harold Kilman, Texas Christian.
Guards—Danny Wolfe, Texas; Centers—Jack Linger, Ohio State; Joe Watson, Rice; Dick Highower, Southern Methodist; Bill Gosselin, Arizona State.

LINEMAN OF WEEK

Stan McGuire (above), Oregon State College right end, has been named Associated Press Lineman of the Week. McGuire played a major role in O.S.C.'s upset victory over Michigan State last Saturday, kicking a field goal, two conversions and blocking a kick for a safety.

Army-Navy Tickets Scarcer This Year

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 17 (AP)—More people can't get tickets for the Army-Navy football game this year than couldn't get them ever before.

You may have the $6 asking price, but you have to know more than a friend of a friend to lay hands on a ticket.

The "demand is greater than I ever recall it," a Navy spokesman said today.

Annapolis officers said they understood West Point is gasping under the same deluge.

"This appears to contradict the economic cycle," the Navy source declared. He thought people these days weren't supposed to be going around spending $6 to see a football game.

The game will be played Nov. 26 in Philadelphia's cavernous Municipal Stadium which holds 102,000 fans. The "ticket capacity," after deducting concessions, guards, ushers, sports writers and photographers, is about 89,000.

President Truman and members of Congress are in the happiest spot of all. Every year the President has an allotment "which" he purchases, the naval academy explained in a notice to disappointed thousands. Both West Point and Annapolis provide each senator and representative with eight pastebards, as long as he fills out a form and encloses the money.

Midshipmen and cadets are entitled to four. So are alumni members of the respective athletic associations.

Requests piled in early enough to ballast a battleship. So many earnesties came from the fleet that humble plebes heard they were going to be slashed to a pair apiece. The academy chose another method.

Any dues-paying member of the athletic association who applied for his limit "for personal use" got all four. But the benighted who marked their application for "use of others" were promptly cut to two.

Syracuse, N. Y.—Nick Barone, 175, Syracuse, outpointed Chubby Wright (Eddie Dutton) 174, Reading, Pa. 10.

Miami, Fla.—Sonny Luciano, 140, Paterson, N. J., outpointed Herb Quintero, 142, Tampa, 10.

Canadian Ring Stars To Box Here Tonight

This is boxing night in Kingston and headlining the B'nai B'rith ring card at the municipal auditorium is the crack Canadian team featuring Eddie Durtisac, the Dominion amateur middleweight ace.

Three other Dominion ring stars also are scheduled to appear tonight according to Chairman Bill Singer of the boxing committee. The other Canadian standouts are Gene Mainville, Montreal featherweight; Al Cotherpe and Roy Keenan, the crack lightweight.

Sharing honors on tonight's fistic bill at the midtown arena is Joe Ausanio, the local favorite, who will appear in one of the three-round prelims.

Libby Manzolillo, the Jeffersonville belter who is regarded as one of the top favorites in Kingston, will meet Keenan.

The card also will include Rufus Rodgers, Willie Smith, Poughkeepsie ace; Harry Smith, Berkshire; Tony Muccio, Kingston amateur.

The live-round feature bouts follow:

Saddy May Get NBA Appointment

Havana, Cuba, Nov. 17 (AP)—A veteran figure in boxing, who once fought Jack Dempsey—"that, my friend, was a mistake"—was a likely choice today for president of the National Boxing Association.

He is Fred J. Saddy, executive secretary of the State Athletic Commission of Wisconsin. Convention delegates said he was "as good as in" as 1950 president of NBA, succeeding Flamen Adde of Miami Beach, Fla.

Saddy's encounter with Dempsey "lasted less than a round." It was in Memphis, Tenn., in March, 1917, he said, "I was young and very, very ambitious about a boxing career. After that bout, I knew boxing was not for me, and that for my money, Dempsey always was the champ."

"Incidentally, I didn't keep in training, and of course had no chance against Dempsey, who was then coming up fast."

The NBA chose Detroit for its September, 1950 convention.

Meanwhile, delegates heard that Chairman Edward P. F. Ennis of the New York State Athletic Commission had written a friendly message to the NBA convention. The New York commission has resubmitted outside NBA. Ennis wrote Nat Fleischer, editor of The Ring, a boxing magazine, that he was "very sympathetic with the fine work" the NBA is doing, extended greetings to the convention, and said "what over this (N.Y.) commission can do to assist in unification of boxing rules and regulations" within the framework of the state of New York. It will gladly do."

Bowling

Dot Rawling led a high scoring session of the Colonial Women's League at the Bowltorium Wednesday night with a terrific 574 triple but the big story of the night was unfurling by Tom Moss, wife of the restaurant keeper, Sam Moss.

Tom, who has been definitely on the upgrade this year with some fifty scores, probably enjoyed her best night of all last night when she wound up with a fine 565 triple—but even to top that was her 238 middle game blast.

Opening with a modest 135 game, Mrs. Moss found her sights quickly and exploded that 238 game and came back with 102 for a 565 series, the No. 2 triple of the night.

Rolling three neat games of 196-151-195 Dot Rawlings 574 took the spotlight.

Others in the big circle were Margie Jansen with 196-539; Rose Schatzel 181-507; Charlotte Lapine 178-525; Bev Markle 185-503; C. Mohr 193-532; and Evelyn Gross 186-513.

Also of note were Mary Bonnell with 185-484; Helen Zaccaro 193-491.

It was Bertha Schaller again pacing the Silver Division with a 496 blast on scores of 157-170-169. R. Rymor hit 429; M. Bechtold 412; M. Shurt 426; Cora Gile 435; Vivian Slover 453; Sue Ryan 418; Lila Lou 450; C. Lane 415; and Marie Kolekian 440. The Purple Division had a new leader this week with T. Clark taking over on a 469 series. She posted 169-151-149.

Four members of female bowling's Big Five dominated the action in the Friendship League Tuesday night, with Rose Schatzel's 523 setting the pace. Mrs. Schatzel fired 211-144-168-523 to outdistance Dot Rawling by two pins. Trailing by single sticks behind Rawling were Evelyn Gross, anchor, 208-520 and Bea Barley 205-519.

Jo Smith tossed a 485 series; Helen Murphy had 474 as did Rita Frederick, while Beverly Markle rounded out the upper bracket with 470.

Herm Seelbach, who draws his bowling inspiration from brother-in-law, Ernie "The Terrible Swede" Magnusson, showed his heels to the Silver Palace pack with 190-201-107-588. Such consistency is seldom found in the brother-in-law. It says here.

Johnny Lowe fireballed a 571; Pete Tatarski shot 231-559; Ernie Magnusson 565; Rob Webb 555; Cliff Davis 211-544; Ed Wood "Hop" Robinson 545; and Joe Maglino 500-541.

A 200-finisher behind 161 and 189 enabled Frank Grimaldi to overshadow the Rookie League with a fifty 570 string. Runnerup was J. Strubel with 219-528. Joe Heidkamp packed 219 and Jack Doyle southpawed 507.

Doug Harvey rattled the pot-boiled timbers for 529, high series of the night in the Y Federation circuit, Art Byrman cracked 512; Ralph Harper 509 and R. Hudler 210-508. Ad Schatzel had a near miss with 497.

W. Lettus unholed a major league 582 as the Boosters Leaguers warmed up to some heavy in-busting this week. The Lettus team sponsor knocked off 175-187-220, a better than average crop of "500" series included John Dittus 547; H. Lettus 537; Bill Ball 532; M. Wolf 518; Jim Cava and C. Rinaldi 504; W. Johnson near-missed with 499.

W. Fatum's 192-539 series, one of the two shot, topped the Chetlet Leaders this week. Fatum also posted 170 and 177. Vernon Freese turned up with the other 500, a 504 effort on games of 184-184-136.

Other top efforts included V. Kuhn with 178-488; P. O'Donnell 198-475; L. Yonetti 195-480; E. Whitaker 478, and C. Rhode 477.

Polk (no first name reported) sparked the Rip Van Winkle League at the Bowldrome this week with 539 series on games of 196-177-187.

Others in the 500 circle included Bill Hornbeck with 208-510; Tiano 208-538; Jim Beniesse 500; T. Orino 208-548; G. Williams 537; Jim Ryan 212-549; and B. Brown 509. Johnson finished with a 469 series headed by a 210 singleton.

Volanda Tenedini's 463 took top honors in the Chetlet Pioneer Women's activities at the Rosendale last night on a 566 runner-up triple. Her games were 152-163-251.

Dolores Freese shot 149-427; Helen Sutton 176-438; and Edie Blakely 178-406. (Editor's note—Thanks for the first names.)

Ted Gile Jr., cracking a 254, single in his third game, finished with a 579 triple to lead the pack in the Junior Major circuit last night at the "Palace." Gile's other scores were 169 and 186.

Jack Russo, anchor for a Kaplan Furniture, sandwiched in a blistering 267 singlet on a 566 runner-up triple. His other scores were 147 and 162.

Elsewhere in the circuit Mike Milano posted 512; George Shufeldt 503; Cunningham 501-523; Jack Paroski 197-546; Len Ward 197-517; V. G. Smith 193-503; Cole Sr. 202-504; C. H. Smith 504; Ed Marks 202-512; G. Hamer 506; Jimmy Daniels 506; and J. Rich 506.

Margaret Bertram and E. Scully wound up in a flat-footed tie for the leadership of the Women's Boosters circuit at the Bowldrome Wednesday night. Zeck wound up with a 213 single after smacking the pot-bellied maples for 191 and 175.

Also of note were J. Graney with 192-504; G. Smith 193-503; Nick Bruck 202-549; M. Motzay 518; Vince Carpio 203-550; Leo Schupp 196-533; Ed Norton 215-511; and Joe Watzka 178-527.

Rangoon to Ban Ricksaws
Rangoon (AP)—The Municipal Corporation of Rangoon has decided to ban ricksaws from the city with effect from January 1, 1951, following representation on humanitarian grounds by the Indian embassy here. Rickshaw-pulling is not regarded as a permanent profession in Burma, but one adopted by casual dockside laborers, solely South Indians, during off-seasons. According to an Indian embassy spokesman, the government of India has forbidden rickshaw-pulling in India. He said the task caused the early mortality of men, even briefly engaged upon it.

Aid to Germany
Hamburg (AP)—Since the end of the war every man, woman and child in the United Kingdom has contributed four pounds to the feeding and maintenance of the Germans, an official British report revealed. The report said that Britain has spent over 200,000,000 pounds since 1945.

Top Singing Star Headlines Ahavath Israel Ball Show

Valada Snow, "International Singing Star," will headline the all-star show to be presented at the 13th annual ball and entertainment of Congregation Ahavath Israel Thanksgiving Eve, November 23, at the municipal auditorium.

Herman C. Rafalowsky, general chairman of the ball committee, waxed keen enthusiasm today in announcing the appearance of Valada. "We've been after this outstanding star for several years now," Herman said, "and we finally made it. I'm sure all the patrons of our annual ball will stamp their immediate approval of her great ability."

Playing 14 instruments and with a God-given voice devoted to the interpretation of modern songs plus a record of her personal appearances in leading night club spots, Valada is considered one of the top performers in show business ever to appear at the municipal auditorium.

Priester of Nads
Valada was a prisoner of the Nazis during her tour of Europe when she was considered one of the greatest artists ever to appear in Europe. She appeared in Paris, London, Ireland, Norway, Finland, Holland, Belgium, Sweden and Scotland in addition to the Tibetan language.

Her spine-tingling versions of "Hill Bill," and "Chico," as well as many other songs old and new, have won her outstanding acclaim by critics wherever she has appeared. Valada is noted for the personality, attack and rhythmic qualities present in her presentation of popular songs.

The appearance of this outstanding vocalist will be one of the top-notch acts to be presented by the Ahavath Israel ball committee. Other acts will be announced.

Music for the Thanksgiving Eve show will be by Sammy Kaye and his Swing and Sway band. Jan Murray will be the master of ceremonies.

Tickets for the ball may be procured from the following: Smart Shop, 304 Wall street; Sun-tag Drugs, 316 Wall street; Broadway Dry Goods, 633 Broadway; Herman C. Rafalowsky, 564 Broadway, and Goldman's Style Shop 24 Broadway.

For the past year he has been studying Tibetan script with a Tibetan research assistant in the university. Tibetan script is an early development of Devanagari which India has adopted as its national script. It is written from left to right, unlike the Chinese which write from top to bottom and whose national political supremacy the Tibetans had acknowledged until recently.

Boy Is Told His Experience Gives Answer He Seeks
Lynn, Mass., Nov. 17 (AP)—"Your experience provides the answer."

That was the American Legion's reply — spoken kindly through its commander — to 11-year-old Lawrence Goldstein's heart-touching question: "Why did my daddy die?"

The puzzled little Jewish fellow put the query to his mother after he had been attacked by a group of older boys who called him "Jew" and kicked him and beat and kicked him into the gutter. Maurice couldn't understand why he should be so treated when his father died a war hero while serving with the 2nd Armored Infantry, 41st Division.

Neither could his mother, Mrs. E. Sylvia Goldstein. She pleaded with the world yesterday through the Lynn item, to give her the answer to the boy's question. Commander George H. Craig gave his answer in Indianapolis yesterday: "You have been the victim of an isolated instance of hatred," he said.

"Your experience provides the answer why your daddy died. . . . He could not stand by and

One Word Marks Girl's Last Note

Watertown, N. Y., Nov. 17 (AP)—The note said only "goodbye." It had been written by 10-year-old Betty Harten. Her body was in a chair nearby.

Police said the sixth-grade pupil shot herself in the chest with her father's .30-caliber carbine rifle yesterday.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon H. Harten, found Betty's body. The gun lay in her lap and the note was on a table nearby. Betty had been alone only 20 minutes.

Harten said his daughter, an only child, had been suffering severe headaches. But he said she appeared in good spirits when he left to pick up his wife at a physician's office in this northern New York city.

Case Is Settled
In County Court Wednesday an action for money lent, brought by Frank and Catherine Palen against Francis J. Phillips and Elliot Phillips, was announced settled during a recess taken after the case had been moved for trial. Court recessed until Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Killed by Car
Lyndon Smith, of Pompton Lakes, N. J., reported to the sheriff's office at 5:30 p. m. Wednesday that his automobile had struck and killed a deer on Route 28 near the West Hurley post office. Conservation Department officials were notified to remove and dispose of the carcass.

condone mass mistreatment of human beings.

"There were evil men who tried to enslave all the free people in the world. Your father went to war to prevent the wholesale destruction of human rights and freedom."

"All true Americans, whether Catholics, Protestants or Jews fought to re-establish international law so such outrages should not go unpunished."

"Because such brave men as your father died America today remains free and our minorities protected."

The commander told Maurice that "the law and public opinion are on your side and that of every minority in our land who can always get relief from oppression."

And to prove that there's truth in those statements, the police and the local lodge of B'nai B'rith are trying to track down the hoodlums.

Young Maurice made a strike against injustice like his father — when he was attacked. He "stuck it out" against his assailants until he was pummeled into the gutter.

Commission Won't Confiscate Locomotive

Jersey Shore, Pa., Nov. 17 (AP)—The Pennsylvania Game Commission has decided it won't confiscate a locomotive allegedly used to transport a deer killed out of season.

The fate of the locomotive was determined yesterday after three railroaders — M. J. Snyder, Carl Vanemore and E. M. Harter — were fined $150 each on charges of possessing an illegally killed deer and transporting it on a New York Central Railroad locomotive.

Pennsylvania law authorizes the commission to confiscate any vehicle used in connection with a violation of the State's game code. After due deliberation, the commission announced it would not press that section of the code. The new season opens in Pennsylvania November 28.

Will Open Friday
The Reliable Cleaners, 40 Broadway, will hold its formal opening Friday. It was announced today by G. Medwin, proprietor.
